Exciting Western Drama Coming To Legion Hall Sunday

A breath of the west that carries the smell of gunpowder and the creaking of leather is at the Legion hall Sunday night—next under the title of "Saddlemates," a Pathé-western and with none other than the popular western star, Wally Wales.

Wally Wales is a hot-headed, two-fisted, hard-riding cowboy who demands fair play, and his partner, in sobriety, for they drink nothing stronger than milk, is an old-fashioned type of cow-man who doesn't believe that he who hesitates is lost. This pair attempt to locate and then force a settlement with a man who has defrauded them out of property through the ruse of signing what they believed to be a gambling note but which really stood for real estate.

In bringing about justice, a romance develops between the young cowboy and the crook's sister, which works out to a happy ending.

A continuation of the Tarzan picture will also be shown along with a laughable comedy.

A good time to take pictures. Get your films at the Maupin Drug Store. Bring in your picture work.

CARD OF THANKS

Thanks hardly express our feelings toward all those friends and neighbors who so willingly and with deep feeling assisted in our late bereavement, the death of our brother, Lester Kelly. To each of you we extend our heartfelt thanks. To those who so thoughtfully brought flowers for his bier we extend other thanks. May you all be spared a like affliction.

A Dollar Dinner for Four

If four people went into a restaurant and tried to get four dinners for only twenty-five cents each, people would begin to suspect their sanity. But at home it's a different matter! Just look at the meal which the intelligent housewife can purchase for her family of four for a modest dollar bill:

- Corn and Beef Loaf $42
- Scalloped Potatoes 10
- Stewed Tomatoes & Celery 17
- Bread and Butter 08
- Jellied Pears 03
- Demi-tasse 06
- Total $96

The recipes for this economical dinner are:
Corn and Beef Loaf: Mix the following ingredients and form into a roll: one pound ground rump of beef, one-half pound ground fresh pork, one beaten egg, one tablespoon chopped onion, one-half tablespoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper, one-half cup bread crumbs

JACK SKINS YIELD BIG PROFIT

Lads Hereabouts Have Chance to Increase Pocket Money

War against the jack rabbit last year in the west netted more than 8,000,000 skins and a profit to farmers and stockmen, from the sale of the pelts of about $2,000,000. Control operations against injurious rabbits are conducted by the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture. Jack rabbits are particularly destructive to alfalfa, range grasses and fruit trees, says the bureau. They also destroy cotton plants in the southwest, and in the northwest ruin large quantities of stacked hay during the winter.

Cold at Pine Grove—

We have it on good authority that Old Man Winter visited Pine Grove with all his coldness during the recent chilly spell. At the Grove thermometers registered 38 degrees below zero one night and on another night showed 32 degrees below. Some chilly weather.

Alt Cutting Logs—

Fred Alt has a crew of men at work in the timber cutting logs for the McFarlane mill. He already has about 200,000 feet of timber at the mill and by spring will have sufficient on hand to warrant a continued run of the mill.

Mill Will Start—

The new boiler for the McFarlane mill at the edge of the timber has arrived and as soon as weather will permit the concrete foundation will be put in. When that is done the mill will be in shape for a long run. The lumber cut is from fine logs and the McFarlane should be able to pile up a considerable quantity of boards during the sawing season.

Sunday Services—

Preaching at Wapinitia both morning and evening. Sabbath school at the usual hour. Bible study at 6:45 p. m. There will be no preaching service at the Maupin church but Sabbath school will convene at the usual time—10:00 a. m., with Bible study hour at the regular time in the evening.

May Start Skating Rink—

Some of the local Legion members are agitating a roller skating rink in the Legion hall. The matter will be taken up and discussed at the next meeting of the Post.

Business Houses Close—

All the business houses closed their doors during the funeral services at Legion hall on Tuesday. This was done so that proprietors and employes might have an opportunity to attend the funeral.

Taking It Easy—

Ben Richardson was in from the First and Last Chance service station on Tuesday, coming down to attend the Lester Kelly funeral. Ben states he is taking things easy this winter. With plenty of wood, good stoves, a well filled larder Ben is taking the winter as it comes. He anticipates a good business as soon as the cut-off road is opened in the spring.

Household Hints

We are always Johnny on the spot with suggestions that fit the season. When the water pipe, are frozen we suggest that you move the furniture out into the front yard and build a fire on the floor of the living room. After nature has taken her usual course, the pipes will be well thawed. Collect the insurance and dash madly for plans and specifications for a new home that knows better than to let its water system freeze. P. S. Don't tell Chief Jim Chalmers.

Said the hen to the farmer, "But I'm laying for you."

T-A-L

A Tum-A-Lum straw loft chicken house will keep hen laying all winter. With eggs at the present price it wouldn't take long to pay for such a house. This and many other fine plans are for your use at our office. Stop for a while by our hot fire and look over the plan books of farm building we have.

Chicken houses cost about $1.25 per hen, or the price of 2 and one-half dozen eggs.

Female Population Grows—

The population of Southern Wasco county continues to increase—in a natural way. That growth seems to give a percentage in favor of the women folks. The latest addition to the girl ranks of these parts came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Tunison on Sunday, the 26th, in the person of a bouncing baby girl. Dr. Elwood reports all concerned are doing nicely.
