

Neighborhood School Notes

Tygh Valley

(Dorothy Hood, Correspondent)
The Tygh Valley town team and the Tygh Juniors were badly beaten Monday when they played Maupin, the score for the town team being 32-12 and the Junior score being 34-4. Both games were very good and all showed good sportsmanship.

The weekly student body meeting was held Tuesday morning and motions made to pay all bills. Hazel Johnson, the secretary-treasurer, handed in her resignation and several nominations were made for the office but all were declined. The president then appointed Carl Wrenn for the position, with Bernice Muller and Dorothy Hood as helpers.

All Wasco County library books are being turned in with the prospects of new report books to be in soon.

Since the nice weather many bare legs can be seen on the school grounds, and the boys have commenced to shoot paper wads, which cause the girls much grief.

Jokes

"Stinky" Davis—"What always comes in pairs?"
Roland Lewis—"Scissors?"
"Stinky"—"No, pear seeds."

Carl Wrenn—"I saw something last night that you'll never get over?"
Hazel Johnson—"Oh, what?"
Carl—"The moon."

Leslie Woodcock—"Did you ever see sausages hanging up in a butcher shop?"
Alna Ashley—"Yes."

Leslie—"I never did. I always thought they hung down."

Wapinitia

Monday morning found all the High school and part of the Grade school boys out on the baseball diamond. Since warmer weather the diamond is dry enough to play on. Old Wap, Hi has almost all of her players this year except two, Robert Holman and Marion Howard.

English Literature

In the study of 'Literature and Life,' the Senior class is now studying chapter X, 'The Age of Johnson.' This chapter tells of the life and literature accomplishments of Johnson, Goldsmith, Richardson, Fielding, Gray, Cowper, Burke and other writers of the eighteenth century.

Commercial Geography

The chapter entitled 'Other Mediterranean Peninsulas' is now occupying the attention of the Commercial Geography class. The countries included in this group are Italy, Spain

Do not wash eggs for incubation. If the shells are dirty, reject the eggs or scrape the dirt off with a knife.

Wheat bran contains much phosphorus, a medium amount of protein and is of a bulky nature. These characteristics make it a valuable ingredient of all dairy rations.

More than 104 billion dozen eggs were marketed in 1928 through nine cooperative egg-marketing associations. All the larger associations are west of the Mississippi river. In the east such cooperative associations are numerous but do not handle large volumes of business.

You can't count your chickens before they're hatched in an incubator or hen is used, but you can count them if day-old chicks are bought from a good hatchery. Each year more and more farmers are buying day-old chicks instead of incubating the eggs. If you buy chicks, be sure to get them from a reliable breeder who has healthy stock and whose hatchery is managed under sanitary conditions. Chicks should be ordered early so they can be delivered in March or April. Late-hatched chicks rarely do as well as early-hatched ones.

"Livestock owners are cautioned against placing dependence on alluring claims for medical or remedies for infectious abortion," says Dr. J. R. Mohler, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agricultural. "Money spent for such products is likely to be wasted, not to mention possible injury that may be done to livestock."

Cattle or sheep affected with foot rot should be promptly separated from healthy animals, as this disease spreads rapidly. In the early stages, thorough cleansing of the affected foot and an application of a carbolic-acid solution (1 ounce to a pint of water) clean stabling, and laxative feed will often remedy the trouble. Preventive measures consist in cleaning and disinfecting quarters where affected animals have been stabled and avoiding infected premises and pastures. Cattle and sheep in big herds are more liable to foot rot, says the U. S. Department of Agricultural, and the disease seems to spread more rapidly where animals are kept closely confined.

FARM REMINDERS

Poultrymen always used to cool the eggs hatching in an incubator by taking them out for a short time each day. It has been found that this practice is unnecessary, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, except when the temperature of the incubator has been running too high. To decide whether to cool eggs or not, notice the size of the air cell, which should gradually increase in size. If the development is too rapid, cool the eggs until they feel slightly cool to the touch.

It's a good idea to make a small outdoor seedbed, with specially prepared soil, in a corner of the farm, to start the plants. They will be more stocky if started here and later transplanted. A good soil mixture for the seedbed is one part of well-rotted manure, two parts of good garden loam or rotted sods, and one part of sharp, fine sand. The addition of leaf mold or peat makes the soil better. Mix the materials and sift the soil.

FASHION POINTERS

Baby blue and pink are the latest feminine reactions.

Sports coats and suits are well belted for convenience.

The dainty puff sleeve and caplet so popular this spring are copied from the Empire period.

A world exposition in Spain last year is responsible for the bolero frock which is now a leading fashion model.

The ensemble tendencies are more stronger than ever. One of the most important things in choosing the ensemble is to have the entire costume appear as a whole.

Fashion smile on both the tall and the short this year. Peplums, tunics, bolero; and capes favor the too tall woman, while flares, longer skirts, godets, geometrical cut and grouped pelats help to solve the problem of the short woman.

The silhouette being decidedly changed this season, hats, too, show the flaring lines. The youthful flares are variously developed and moderated for the tailored hat as well as for the dressier types.

The straw hat is of greatest importance for early spring, varying in style, color and texture, from the finely woven linen straws for dressier wear to the coarser tweed weaves for sport and tailored wear.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Group all early-matured crops together in the truck garden and immediately after harvest turn down or remove plant remains and plant a different crop in their place.

Cloths or pads for straining milk should be used only once as it is difficult to sterilize them after use. They may be purchased from any dairy supply house at a reasonable cost.

Spring greens that grow wild will soon be available for the trouble of picking them. Dandelion, poke, mustard, land cress, and various others are valuable in the diet and appetizing as a change.

To clean upholstered furniture, use either a vacuum cleaner or a brush. A soft brush is best for the velvet and velour, a stiffer brush for tapestry, and other strong, firm materials. When convenient, take upholstered furniture out of doors occasionally and beat them with a flat carpet beater.

It is a help in training the small child to dress himself, if the fastening of his clothes are always found for variety in means in which pork is the main dish, good flavors are celery, cabbage, cymbings, green pepper, parsnips, sweet potatoes, apples and pineapple. These may be cooked in any of the ways you are accustomed to serving them, and used singly in combination.

The vogue for tomato cocktails, made of the juice of canned tomato, seasoned with celery, onion, horseradish salt and pepper, is excellent because it adds to the day's supply when they are cooked or canned, and the inclusion of tomato in the diet is recommended by all nutrition specialists.

MAUPIN HI TIMES

Theodore, Franklyn, Earl, Melvin, Jack and Emery.

The gate receipts were $5.00, but but as they divided with the town team they received $2.50. They will use this money for playground equipment.

Bonney and Douglas were the high scores of the evening; however everyone made a very creditable showing.

Fifth and Sixth

Emery Crofoot and Floyd Addington were absent Monday on account of illness.

Mrs. Joe Chastain visited the Fifth and Sixth grade pupils last Tuesday. Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Starr visited here Friday.

Third and Fourth

Albert Troutman was absent from school Friday afternoon because of going to Portland with his father.

Adeline Schilling was absent on Monday.

Mr. Fraley donated a dictionary to the Third and Fourth grades.

Preparations are being made towards the Penmanship contest to be held at the Fair this fall.

Primary News

Don Stodsdill was absent Wednesday and Thursday.

Bob Mayhew visited school Wednesday.

Many of the Primary pupils enjoyed the Junior basket ball game Wednesday night.

Edna Cantrell brought her Dutch story book, "The Little Dutch Tulip Girl," to school so her classmates could read it. This is a fine spirit of willingness.

The Second graders have mastered new steps in subtraction that includes borrowing and returning.

The reading table has been made more attractive by a bouquet of pussy willows in the center.

Mrs. Kirsch was with us Wednesday for a few minutes. Gertrude is doing excellent second grade work.

Mrs. McCleod was a visitor to the Primary room Friday.

Officers for this week are: Policemen—Dean Crabtree, Don Stodsdill and Elwin Doty.

Phyllis Troutman was excused from school Friday afternoon, as she was going to Portland.

Leo Welch was absent Friday on account of an aching tooth.
