ANTELOPE GIRL IS INITIATED

Verna Bolton, Antelope, Admitted to College Society

The following special to The Times from O. S. C. tells about an Antelope girl, now a student at that institution, as follows:

Verna Boulton, Antelope, sophomore in commerce at Oregon State college has been initiated into the Temen's sorority. This organization was established in 1922 for the benefit of Eastern Star college and university women.

Members are selected from members of good standing in the Order. The purpose of the organization is to band together more closely the Eastern Star members and to maintain and promote the ideals of the order.

Miss Bolton besides being prominent on the campus is also a member of Snell hall, one of the women halls on the campus.

Fine Radios Cheap

There is no use of paying an exorbitant price for a radio. We recently acquired a couple of fine radios on an advertising account and can sell them complete, loud speaker, and tubes, but without the batteries, for $25.00 each. Come in and hear the reception coming in on the one we have set up. After doing so your own judgement will decide whether you can save money on such a household equipment or not.

"Forlorn River"—Show

Zane Grey's great story, "Forlorn River" will be the attraction at Legion hall next Sunday night. This is one of the greatest of all of that popular writer's works and has been filmed to bring out the best situations of the story. Supplementing the "Forlorn River" will be a news reel and a laughable comedy. While the main bill is usually a 50-cent attraction, still Manager Miller has placed admission at 15 and 35 cents.

Rod Fixed Yet?

Have you had that trout rod fixed up so that it will last thru the fishing season? If you have not done so there still is time to have the work done if you will take it to Harry Redding or leave it at this print shop. Harry has the know-how about fishing rods and his work is without an equal. Prices and workmanship just right.
