office at Maupin, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

EXPERIENCE COUNTS

No one would employ a ditch digger to erect a skyscraper, and no one would call in a horse doctor to administer in a case of typhoid fever. On the other hand a competent architect would be employed in the first case and a competent physician called in the latter case.

The same rule applies in the race for the county superintendency. Mr.
Brumbaugh has shown his competency in the office, he has had years of administrative work as an educator and other years as teacher, thus acquiring a thorough knowledge of the school system of Oregon and of Wasco county. As superintendent during the past year he has carried on the work successfully. By re-electing him the people of this county will have chosen wisely and well and will have secured a guarantee that our schools will be conducted according to the prescribed law and at the same be brot up to a higher standard of efficiency. By all means keep Mr. Brumbaugh in office that our schools may continue as successfully as in years past.

FOR THE SMALL MAN

While most of the candidates for the office of governor are tied up with big business, it remains for Charles Hall to declare himself favorable to the small dealer. He came up from the ranks of such and retains a warm spot in his heart for those who are endeavoring to eke out a living and small accumulation for the inevitable
"rainy day."

Charles Hall

In a recent address Mr. Hall declared himself as favoring giving the small man a larger chance. He showed how the small dealer's business was taxed on a parity with that of the mercantile kings and said he would, if nominated, do his best to equalize taxation that the small man would not be compelled to bear the brunt of the burden.

Mr. Hall told how he at one time conducted a small drug store and also of the many troubles encountered in that business. He recited experiences in the telephone business as well as in other lines and throughout his address showed a liking for those who are confronted with difficulties contingent upon small business enterprises.

Mr. Hall has been accused of having been a member of the "yellow ticket" bunch of politicians who sought office after the regular ticket of a few years ago had been nominated. That was the time Bob Stanfield stopped over and heard his own death knell as a political power in Oregon rung. Corbett, Norblad and others received the support of that element during that campaign, yet nothing has been said against them on that account so far this campaign. The fact is that other candidate are afraid of the popularity of Mr. Hall and remember that he was defeated by but 521 votes at the time.

We expect Mr. Hall to carry Eastern Oregon as well as his home section. He is popular in southwestern Oregon and with the many candidates in the field will split the vote of the bigger districts and win the nomination by a large plurality.

CHAMBERLAIN OKEY

George Chamberlain has proven himself as county commissioner. He took hold of the work as an appointee of the county court and has been busy as the proverbial ant since his commissionership began. He has the best interests of the county at heart, knows the needs of the county, is an expert in the matter of roads and watches with alertness all phases of the county's business whereby money may be saved. Being a heavy taxpayer himself it is only natural to believe he works for the lowest possible tax rate, and when that is done all taxpayers are benefited.

George Chamberlain is a good man to keep in office. He knows the ropes and will continue to work for the greatest good for the greatest number so long as he is a member of the county court. Keep him there and you will be assisting in reducing the county's indebtedness and at the same time providing the court with a member who is on the job at all times.

AUXILIARY POPPY SALE

Free Program at Legion Hall on Saturday, May 24

A few cents here and a few cents there make up an aggregate that will amount to a considerable sum.
Each year the American Legion and Auxiliary sell poppies as a means of assistance to those world war veterans who are confined to hospitals.
This year the Maupin Legion Auxiliary will mix a literary and musical program with its poppy sale, same to be held at the Legion hall on Saturday evening, May 24. No charge will be made for admission, the ladies depending upon sale of poppies to make them a profit.

Hood River—Contract awarded to L. C. Baldwin, on bid of $58,498, for construction of packing shed for Apple Growers' association.

Agreeably Surprised—

The Times man was agreeably surprised Monday morning when he was called to the door and greeted an old-time co-laborer in the newspaper game at Pocatello, Idaho, Ed. Merritt, publisher of the Peninsula Outlook, Portland. The two men were employed on different papers but their work was such that they were thrown together many hours daily. They had not met for 25 years. Merritt, with a friend came up for a Sunday's fishing in the Dechutes.

Water Flowing on Flat—

Since the ditches have been cleaned out and widened, water is flowing on the Flat in a greater quantity than ever. If the company claiming ownership of that system had been half as industrious as they claim to have been, the contract holders never would have suffered for lack of water as they have done the past several years.

Many Sheep Killed—

A shepherd was the cause of a wholesale killing of sheep by an O. W. passenger train Monday evening. He had been watching the band on the flat opposite Greene's and as the train approached a curve rounded the sheep up and attempted to drive them across the track. He was too late, however, as the train ran into a band, killing 77 and wounding four more so severely that they died soon after being hit.

C. E. Worker Coming—

Miss Ada Swett, prominent worker in Christian Endeavor circles, of Dufur, will lead at a meeting at the Maupin church this Saturday. The meeting will be in the nature of a vacation school and all children of four years and up are urged to take part. Miss Swett will be assisted by Miss Eva Smith in the school.

Got a Salmon—

Frank Stuart went to Shearers Bridge last Saturday and remained over night, fishing for salmon on Sunday. He was successful in landing a fine chinook, the fish weighing better than 12 pounds and being nearly a yard long.

Wernmark's Shoe Sale—

We call our readers' attention to the advertisement of the Wernmark store in this issue of The Times.
Wernmark is making a special reduction on many lines and has several fine numbers in the list. A saving may be made by buying shoes during the sale, which will continue during the balance of this month.
All good shoes at money-saving prices.

New County Agent—

W. Wray Lawrence's new county agent, he taking the position made vacant by the resignation of C. W. Daigh, who has gone to Bannock county, Idaho, with headquarters at Pocatello.

Newell Shearer is Dad—

Word received by his relatives conveys the information that Newell Shearer, now employed as plumber at Dayton, Ohio, is father of a big baby boy, the newcomer making his appearance at the Shearer home last week.

Brought Cook Here—

Mrs. Marcus Shearer went to Portland last Friday and returned Monday, bringing a cook, Mrs. Margaret Carter, with her. Mrs. Carter is an experienced cook and being well acquainted with the desires and idiosyncrasies in appetites of the traveling public, will assist in keeping up the excellent reputation of the Ma-pin cafe.

Tri-County Convention—

A large number of Legionnaires and members of the Auxiliary went to Antelope Monday to attend a meeting of the Tri-County Legion. Many from here traveled in a rack on top of a truck, others going by private auto. At the conclusion of the meeting a fine supper was served, after which dancing was indulged in. A most pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Grade Teacher Chosen—

Miss Ruth Pepper of The Dalles has been chosen as teacher of the First and Second grades of our schools for the coming year. Miss Pepper takes the position made vacant by the refusal of Mrs. Audrey

Orchard Tract, Sold—

The Oregonian of Monday reported the sale of the Dufur orchard tracts to a man named Kaseberger, hailing from Sherman county. The land covered by the purchase amounts to about 3,000 acres and a price of $200,000 is said to have been paid for it. The buyer is a wealthy farmer of Sherman county, farming a ranch of 3,000 acres there.
