MAUPIN SINGERS AT DUFUR

Called to Provide Music at Mrs. Bliem's Funeral

Five of Maupin's well known vocalists attended the funeral of Grandma Bliem, mother of R. W. Bliem, held at Dufur Tuesday morning. Those going from here were Mrs. R. E. Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Woodcock, Mrs. Geo. Morris, Mrs. H. F. Bothwell and W. H. Staats. Mrs. Bliem had been a resident of the Dufur district for more than 30 years. A large gathering of relatives and friends assembled to pay their last respects to a beloved mother and friend.

PETERSON-SWETT

A wedding in which a relative of a Maupin man figured as groom was pulled off at Dufur last Sunday, when Archie Swett, brother of Tom Swett of this place, took unto himself as wife, Miss Hanna Peterson, one of Dufur's fairest daughters.

The ceremony took place at the Wm. Evans home and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives, among them being Tom Swett and wife of Maupin. After the ceremony the happy couple departed for McMinnville and other Valley points for a brief honeymoon. Rev. Bath of the Dufur Christian church was the officiating clergyman.

Sheared His Wrist—

While snaring sheep at the Weberg ranch on Tuesday Leonard Weberg slipped and in so doing caused the sharp shears to slice into his left wrist. The tool made a long, deep cut, necessitating several stitches to close. Leonard will lay off from work a few days as a result.

Maupin Wins Again—

Maupin continues at the top of the win column in baseball. Our team went to Kent last Sunday and took the team of that place into camp to the tune of 5-2. Poling officiated in the box and as usual, had the Kentites at his mercy. Clarence Ziegenhagen started the game but in the second inning strained his back, giving way to Poling, who finished the game.

Wapinitia Services—

Services at Wapinitia both morning and evening next Sunday. The evening service will be one of song and will be led by Miss Aca Swett. This church is prospering and if you are interested in its well being you will attend services held at Wapinitia.

Pick Ups About Town

When a young man brags of his fistic ability and challenges another for a fight and then yells "enough" after receiving a few punches on the proboscis, he shows a yellow strain. Such a thing happened in Maupin Monday evening.

Jack Berthala went to Badger creek after trout last Sunday. He reached the creek all right and was greatly surprised to see a fisherman on every riffle and large rock. None were catching fish, so Jack loaded into his Ford and drove back to Maupin where there was more room to cast a fly and a greater chance of catching a few fish.

Those people who were so confident that a certain lady had shaken the dust of this section from her feet when she took a short vacation, were considerably frustrated when she returned as per schedule. There is a class here in Maupin (and elsewhere as well) who act as though they knew all about others, forgetting that their own business should occupy their time.

Tom Baird has shown himself a master builder. His work as superintendent during the construction of Maupin's new reservoir evidences the fact that he was the man for the job. Since coming here Tom had offers to construct some mighty big jobs. If he accepts them his employers may rest satisfied their work will be done right and in the shortest possible time.

The recent rains have proven of the most good received by this section so far this season. Summer fallow on the Flat was wet down to a depth of three inches, and the stimulus given the wheat is most encouraging. Pasture lands were given a through wetting and the grass is shooting up wonderfully. It is a wise Providence that watches over his people.

Antiquated programs and passe addresses had no place on the graduation exercises at the High school in Maupin tonight. The program was unique in that it was a decided departure from stereotyped forms and was most pleasing and instructive. Each of the graduates was on tip toe and the addresses may be said to have been among the best ever delivered at any previous commencement. Much praise is deserved by all who took part—teachers as well as pupils and those outsiders who contributed to the pleasure of the event.
