 ter September 8, 1914, at the postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Some Gasoline Sales—
 Last Sunday Johnny Williams sold about 500 gallons of gasoline. The sales were made mostly to tourists, although a few fishermen patronized the pumps at the Maupin camp grounds.

Baked His Leg—
 While training for the sprints at O. S. C. last week Estel Stovall strained the tendons of one shin.
 To relieve the strain a trainer placed him under an anesthetic and succeeded in baking the leg so much that now Estel is limping about the campus.
 He expects to be in shape for the track meet this week Saturday.

Vacation Bible School—
 At Wapinitia beginning Sunday morning and continuing all of next week. This will conclude with a Children's Day program and gathering, also a basket dinner on June 1st.

Poppy Sale Saturday Night— Don't forget the poppy sale and program at Legion hall Saturday night. The Legion Auxiliary has the matter in charge and promise a good time to all who attend. The program will be free a slight charge being made for the refreshments.

Shady Brook Dance—
 A free dance and supper will be held at the Shady Brook Community hall on this week Saturday night.
 This is the annual free dance given by the Shady Brookers and with good music and good floor a good time may be expected. Supper will be served for 50 cents.

Will Sing Solo— Special musical service at the church on Sunday night. At that time several Maupin vocalists will assist in singing and Dr. W. A. Short will render that beautiful hymn,
 "No Night There."

First Communion—
 First communion services will be in charge of Rev. Father Casey of The Dalles at the Catholic church Sunday morning. At that time Edna Cantrell and daughter of Jake Peterson of Sherars Bridge will make their first communion.

Left For Dufur Ranch— Mrs. H. F. Bothwell left for the Bothwell ranch at Dufur yesterday morning. During the summer season Mrs. Bothwell will visit Maupin one day each week so that her piano students may receive their instruction.

Will Prove Up—
 Billy Fischer has a notice of proof in this issue of The Times. Billy will make final proof of his homestead under a three-year residence.
 The proof to be made before Court Commissioner Frank Stuart July 22.
 His witnesses will be John Foley, Frank Lister, W. J. Harris and W.
 H. Williams.

Petrified Forest Found— Another petrified forest, the only one so far discovered with the trees lying as they fell millions of years ago, is reported to the U. S. Forest Service. The forest, high covers several acres, was found by a road-building expedition on the lower Yellowstone reclamation project.
 Some of the trees are 10 feet in diameter and more than 100 feet long.

Sunday Services—
 Maupin Sunday school will convene at 10:00 a. m. Sunday morning with preaching by Pastor Smith immediately following. Preaching again at 8:00 in the evening. At that service will be a demonstration program of the Vacation Bible school.
 Everyone invited and urged to attend that the boys and girls may be encouraged in the good work of the Sabbath school.

Visited Sabbath School—
 Rev. Wilbur and wife from Hood River, were out-of-town people who visited the U. B. Sabbath school last Sunday. The reverend gentleman and wife were passing through and stopped off long enough to attend the school.

Car Broke Axle—
 A Portland man driving a Maxwell car suffered a slight accident on the cut-off Sunday. His car swerved and in so doing an axle was broken.
 Joe Kramer towed the car to Maupin and Bill Schilling soon had it in traveling condition again.

Reservoir Completed—
 Tom Baird and D. Kelleher, pipe-man and powder monkey, left for their homes at The Dalles Tuesday afternoon, they having concluded their work on the new reservoir. The new tank is a model of its kind and those instrumental in its construction have built a monument that will endure for all time.

Caught Three Salmon—
 Elza Derthick is thorough in all he undertakes. During the winter Elza goes after fur; when the smelt are running the young man gets his share, and the same applies to his fishing. Saturday he and his dad went to Sherars Bridge and fished for salmon. Elza was the better fisherman of the two, he landing three fine chinooks. He used a common spinner, baiting with chubs.

Expert Welding—
 In relaying the feed pipes leading from the rams to the new reservoir it was found necessary to bend an elbow and weld the sections of the pipes together. Bill Schilling took his welding outfit to the reservoir and proceeded to do the work. His job showed he was a master in the art of welding and it will be a long time before this place will need new feed pipes.

Broke Collar Bone—
 While wrestling with some schoolmates at the fair grounds last Friday Orville Fraley suffered the breaking of his right collar bone.
 Dr. Elwood bandaged the break and for the coming few weeks Orville will carry his arm in a sling.

Entertaining Relatives—
 Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Stovall are entertaining the father and sister of the doctor, they being G. S. Stovall and Mrs. Guy Breech, who came up from Turlock, California, for a visit.
 Mrs. Breech's husband is included with the visitors. The party intends to spend some time in Maupin.

Experience
 She—What do you know about love?
 He—Plenty, I drove a taxi for three years.

No Difference
 Rag Man—Any liquor bottles, ma'am?
 Lady (frigidly)—Do I look as if I drank?
 Rag Man—Well, then, any vinegar bottles?

He—Dearest, I love you terribly.
 She—You certainly do.

Sam—Once I loved a girl and the made a fool out of me.

Louise—It goes to show what a lasting impression some girls make.

Evidence
 Suspicious Husband—Who called this afternoon.

His Better Half—Only Aunt Sophie.

Suspicious Husband—Well, she left her pipe.

"My razor doesn't cut at all."
 "Why, Henry, you don't mean to tell me that your beard is tougher than the oil cloth."

Whose Dog
 Jones Your dog bit me.

Neighbor—He did not!
 Neighbor—First, my dog has no teeth; second, he is not ferocious; third, he is particular whom he bites;
 fourth, I have no dog.

She—But, seriously, don't your wife object to us being seen together so much?
 He—M'no. What worries her is when we're not seen, you know.

Had 'Em All
 Cop—Let me see your license.

Autoist—Marriage, car, driver's, camper's, fishing, dog, hunting, or builder's license? Helen, reach me the license file under the seat.

Scientifically Stated
 Olive—Why can't lightning strike the front end of a street car?
 Oiled—Because the motorman's a nonconductor.

Proud Parents
 "How is your son doing in college?"
 "Fine, He writes that he has matriculated already, and he hasn't been there a month."

Kept It To Themselves
 Professor—What have you found out about the salivary glands?
 Student—Not a thing. They're so secretive.

Push-The-Button Meals

THIS is a push-the-button age wherein it is possible to have anything from a Western Union boy to an in-a-door bed by merely pushing a button or turning a crank. If you live in New York City you can even go into a restaurant, drop a coin in the slot and have boiling coffee and cooling cream pour simultaneously into your waiting cup.

The modern woman keeps pace by devoting a shelf in her pantry to push-the-button meals. This doesn't mean that she has pigeon-holed the old-time good things that take a day to cook. There are days just meant for chopping and grinding and blending mincemeat, say, to be later piled into flaky crusts that melt in your mouth and tell the world that you have baked an honest-to-goodness home-made pie.

Presto! Dinner's Served

But there are days, too, when people drop in, or you go out, returning home with only time, figuratively speaking, to push-the-button. Then the shelf of prepared foods is a life-saver. What does it hold in store? There are Italian dinners with meat sauce that takes a day to cook, already cooked in the can; Mexican dinners that require only that the chili con carne be heated and poured over hot tamales in the Mexican manner; and an endless list of American favorites such as corned beef hash that needs only browning in the oven and the possible addition of a poached egg; oven-baked beans which have cooked for hours with pork, brown sugar and molasses and need only a minute to heat; fruits already mixed for salads ready to be hurried into lettuce nests, and delicious berries, ready for sponge layers and a topping, perhaps, of hastily-beaten cream.

These are only a few of the foods that can be prepared while the kettle boils—to our grandmothers they would truly be push-the-button meals.
