Pick Ups About Town

icked up around this burg ..... Rudolfo Valentino, once shiek of the movies, is no more. He passed through the exit from earth to the beyond some time ago. His going left a field open for aspiring movie actors. Maupin has one young fellow, a dark fairly good looking shiek, who glories in the fact that he has been told he resembles the late lamented Rudolfo. His mind is made up to tie himself to Hollywood and there attempt to "break into" the movie, trusting to his resemblance to Valentino to "put him on." It is said a movie actor's life is one of hard work. That being true we are afraid our Maupin lad will not succeed, for he has demonstrated that hard work and he do not agree. Oh—k what's the use.

Elmer Hornquist, "Big Ram" in the Shepherders union, is in town for the annual meeting of that body. Elmer says the members of that union are backward in paying their dues, that he has not collected a fleece since he has been in possession of the wool sack, also that the drain upon that exchequer has been so strong that he has been compelled to forego smoking tailor made and must roll his own. Just what he has determined to do regarding the condition we have not been informed. We look for an upheaval in the ranks of the herders before our doughty herder-ranger leaves for his summer's work.

A stranger asked R. C. Fulkerson "when the wind stops blowing in this section?" Also is it ever stopped? The trapper replied that he supposed the wind took a day off occasionally, but that during his stay of several years here that event has not occurred but twice.

Mrs. H. F. Bothwell is a valuable asset to Maupin. Her work along musical lines with the younger element is bringing forth good fruit and soon Maupin will be known as a place where even the babies are up in the science of art and sounds and are able to produce with harmony melody on various instruments.

Two Sunday school evangelists, the Misses Ada Swett and Eva Smith are in Maupin working for the up-building of the local school. They are making a house to house canvass and are meeting with some success.

Their object is most laudable, for it is by inculcating a spirit of christianity in the young and inducing them to attend Sabbath school that the foundation of civilization is kept intact. By all means send the children to Sabbath school; it is an education for them and teaches them that the Golden Rule is the right step toward a happy and successful life.

A backwoods mountaineer found a mirror that some tourist had evidently lost.

"Well if it ain't my old dad," he said, as he looked in the mirror. "I never knowed he had his pitcher took."

He took the mirror home and stole into the attic to hide it. But his actions didn't escape his suspicious wife. That night while he slept, she slipped up to the attic and found the mirror.

"Hum-um" she said, looking into it, "so that's the old hag he's been chasin'."

Why shouldn't women run for Congress? They have had a lot of experience introducing bill to the house.

Look at the new Richmond building. We furnished the cement and shiplap for it.

Why is it that a blackberry is red when it is green and how can a black cow give white milk that makes yellow butter to feed to kiddies to give them red cheeks? We never did like oleo anyway.

Put in your order for your winters wood while a supply is in the yard.

Dr. Short came into our yard the other day and said he ran into such a strong wind that it blew out the tail light on his car.

A Better Furniture Store

To My Many Friends and Patrons:
This is to announce that I have recently acquired the interest of my partners (The Powers Company) and that plans have been completed for an entire renovation and remodeling of our store at the corner of Third and Washington streets. It will be our aim, in carry out these plans, to provide the people of The Dalles, and surrounding mid-Columbia and eastern Oregon districts, with the most up-to-date displays of home furnishings. The changes we contemplate will enable us to serve you in the most efficient and economical manner.
This county is entitled to have a furniture shop along the most modern lines. Our plans will make such available. Here home builders will be able to inspect the finer line of home furnishings, where there will be no sacrifice of the standard of quality, but where price will be lowered to a point in keeping with modern metropolitan furniture merchandising.
In order to carry out our remodeling plans it will be necessary to clear our floor space as much as possible and thus we are launching our remodeling sale. Workmen will soon be demanding the removal of goods, in order that they may bring about the changes needed for turning our store into a modern furniture mart.
This sale will afford the people of this part of Oregon and southern Washington with an unusual opportunity to furnish their homes at a minimum cost. They may choose from a complete new spring stock at savings that range from 15 to 50 per cent.
In making this announcement of our plans for a better furniture store, we want to express to all our very sincere thanks for past patronage.
