Broke Truck Axle

While nearing Wanic Monday afternoon the freight truck driven by Tom Swett broke down, an axle giving way. Tom phoned to Joe Kramer and that worthy soon procured a substitute for the broken part and had it installed. Tom got home in time to go to bed.

Former Publisher Calls

Mrs. Jessilene Morrison, former publisher of The Maupin Times, with her daughter, Miss Edith, called at our saucum on Monday. Mrs. Morrison is now conducting a job printing shop at Battle Ground, Washington, and is taking her annual vacation after a strenuous year's work. She is at present at Wanic on a visit with her mother.

Completed School Term

Mrs. Anna Bradway has completed her school teaching term at the Frieda school and on Tuesday left for Portland. She will return for a short time and then go to Roseburg, where she has a home. Mrs. Bradway's work at Frieda was much appreciated by the pupils there and it was with reluctance they saw her leave for the summer.

Newlyweds Visit Here

Archie Swett and wife, newlywed from Dufur, came over Sunday and spent the day with the groom's brother, Tom Swett, and wife. The expect to make their home at Dufur.

Taking Forms Down

Richmonds completed filling the forms for their new garage building on Sunday and on Tuesday began removing the lumber therefrom. The walls show up smooth and firm and work will now be commenced on the roof and interior finishing. The building adds much to the appearance of Maupin's main street.

Big Order For Boards

A Lincoln Hartman recently received an order for 500 toy ironing boards, they being made the same as his regular utility board, but on a smaller scale. The order came from the big Meier & Frank Portland store. Link made his initial shipment to the firm on Tuesday.

Company Not Operating

The Mt. Hood Land & Water company, in reality the old Wapinitia irrigation company, does not seem to be operating to any great extent on the flat. For a time they had a "crew of men," two, at work—that is, they were supposed to work on the ditch leading from the mountains. The two men succeeded in dumping a few wheelbarrow loads of earth in a break that occurred in the canal a year ago, after being on the job two weeks. Water is reaching the alfalfa fields, but only through the efforts and work done by the contract holders.

Moved Building

Joe Chastain has moved the main part of the residence building recently acquired from Frank Croger, to the foundation and will build up a modern house. When that is completed Mr. Chastain will proceed with the erection of another residence building.

Wool Passing Through

Several trucks loaded with wool pass through Maupin daily now. The clips come from farther east and the sacks seem to be packed with heavy wool.

U. B. Sunday Service

Rev. Clark Smith announces that there will be a daily Bible school at Wapinitia all next week, beginning on Sunday. The school is conducted by the Misses Ada Swett and Eva Smith and is for children between the ages of four and 14 years. Sabbath school at 10:00 a. m. preaching services after Sunday school and again in the evening.

Bible School Program

A vacation Bible school program was given at the church at Maupin on Sunday evening last, Miss Ada Swett having the matter in charge. The program consisted of excerpts from lessons learned at the Bible school, the e being interspersed with singing and talks by those in charge. A large attendance greeted the little students.

Work Horses to Troutdale

The Sherlock Construction company, road builder, has been buying up work horses in this vicinity this week. This (Thursday) morning the company shipped a carload of such horses to Troutdale, to be taken to Gresham, and from there to road work sites. The O. W. carried the acres out of the southern Wasco country.

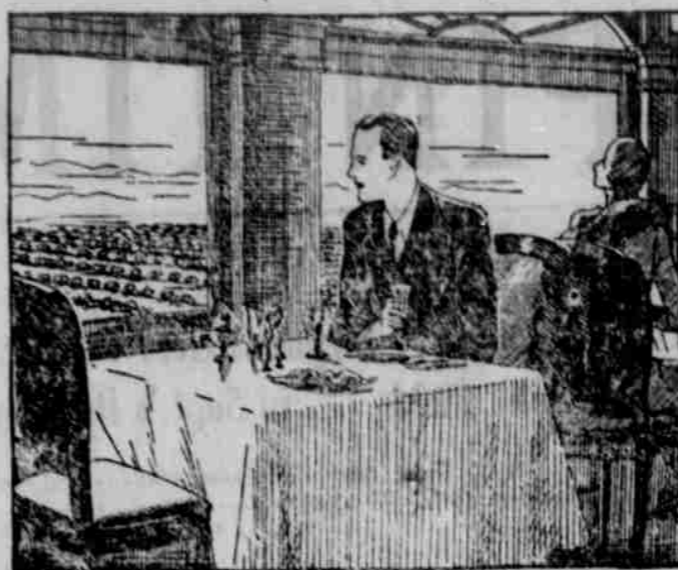

DeVoe's on Vacation

A. W. DeVoe and wife left yesterday for Lost Lake, Idaho, where they expect to spend the major part of the vacation at the summer resort of Mrs. DeVoe's parents. During their absence our popular teachers will make side trips to Canada and other points of interest. They will return in time for the opening of school next fall.

Crabtree to Leave

We are informed that Job Crabtree and family intend to soon leave Maupin, going to some place down the Columbia river. The Crabtree family has been in Maupin about four years since leaving Astoria, but lack of work in the carpenter line about this place causes them to again seek other fields. Just when the move will be made we have not learned, but it will be soon.

Sauerkraut Everywhere

BETTER cabbage makes better kraut. This is the principle on which canners are working in every field of the industry in order that the housewife may have the best foods possible. It was for this purpose of securing the best possible raw products to go into cans that a Canner's Conference was held recently in the Horticulture and Forestry Building of the Ohio State University, at Columbus, Ohio.

Limelight on Kraut

One of the interesting discussions at the conference was concerned with growing kraut cabbage. With the limelight focused on sauerkraut as never before, acclaimed by physicians and health authorities, served on famous restaurant menus as well as in homes everywhere, and with kraut juice popular as a drink in hotels and on railroad dining-cars all over the country, it is important that perfect cabbages go into the vats.

Housewives want quality canned foods, it was generally agreed at this conference. It does not require high pressure salesmanship to sell the best in canned foods. But quality raw products are necessary to produce quality canned foods, and for this reason leaders in the canning industry conferred with the nation's leading horticultural authorities.

Two of the most popular and healthful drinks that have acquired a vogue in recent years are sauerkraut juice and tomato juice. Here is a way of combining them both: Sauerkraut and Tomato Cocktail: Mix together with cracked ice in a cocktail shaker, one part juice from canned sauerkraut and one part juice from canned tomatoes, salt and paprika, and shake until very cold and foamy. Serve at once in small glasses.

Filled in Front Yard

Mike VanLaanen has been busy a few days this week filling in and leveling the front yard at the Joe Kramer residence. Mike also constructed a walk leading from the house to the side walk.

Maupin Defeated

Maupin and Tygh Valley baseball teams clashed at the fair grounds last Sunday. The Tygh boys proved too fast for the Maupin players, winning the game by a score of nine to four.

Will Begin Shearing

Shearers have begun their season's work, beginning on the Abbott bands. The Connolly woolies are being bereft of their fleeces at this time, machines being used. The shearers will shear the Hunt flocks when through at Abbott's and after that will go to Fitzpatrick's.

Dogs Kill Chickens

Chicken killing dogs ran rampant about Maupin yesterday morning. They got into R. W. Richmond's chicken yard and before becoming satisfied had killed 13 small chickens. Richmond has declared war on dogs and the owners are notified to either keep them up or make arrangements to bury them.

Engagement Announced

The following from The Dalles Optimist will be of interest to many Maupin people who are friends of the groom mentioned in the following announcement: "Mrs. J. Scott Callihan entertained at bridge Friday evening to announce the engagement of her sister, Miss A. Leaside White, to Addie H. Wray of Maupin. The wedding will take place during the summer. Five tables of bridge were in play."

Debarred For Life

Gubernatorial Nominee Joseph and his arch enemy, Attorney Mannix, both of Portland, were debarred from the practice of law by a decision of the supreme court handed down this week. The disbarment is for life, although Joseph may square himself by a retraction of the statement made by him that Oregon's supreme court was a body of "graffers."

Suit on Note Filed

W. E. Hunt has filed suit in circuit court to collect on notes aggregating $1500, which the complaint alleges were given to him on December 30, 1927, by Peter Kilburg and W. O. Miller. The notes, according to the complaint, bore 10 per cent interest. A payment of $100, the complaint stated, was made for interest in December, 1928, but no other payment was ever made on the notes. It was declared.
