A Dollar Dinner for Four

Curried Beef $0.60
 Mashed Potatoes06
 Lettuce with French Dressing10
 Bread and Butter08
 Cranberry Foam—Crackers16
 Total $1.00

Do you ever get tired handing out dollars to the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker? Then try holding on to a dollar long enough to give it a chance. It will buy sufficient food to serve a very delightful dinner to four persons, if you will think ahead and count the pennies of which it is composed. Here, for example, is a dinner which costs only a dollar, and is not only sufficient for four persons but sufficiently good for any four persons. Try such a dollar dinner each week, and watch the dollars pile up.

Curried Beef: Cut one pound of round steak in inch squares.

Fry one sliced onion in the dripping for a few minutes. Mix one-fourth cup flour with one teaspoon salt, one and one-half teaspoons curry powder and roll the meat in it. Then add to the fat and onion, and cook until the meat is well browned. Add one cup of water and one No. 2 can of tomatoes, and boil a few minutes. Bake in a slow oven for one and one-half hours, or until tender.

Cranberry Foam: Beat the whites of two eggs until very stiff. Mash cranberries from a 3-ounce can with a fork and fold into the egg. Pile lightly in dessert dishes and chill thoroughly. Serve with plain crackers.

Will Build Gym—
 J. Thompson, a contractor from The Dalles, will build the new gym at Wapinitia, he having taken the contract over from the Tum-A-Lum

Lumber company, the successful bidder for erection of the building. Work on the structure will begin next Monday.

The rye is strictly volunteer, Hugh having seeded his acres to that grain several years ago. The grain continues to reseed the ground and Hugh will realize a fine yield again this year.
