act of March 8, 1876.

Attended Carriers' Convention—

Carl Pratt and family attended the convention of Oregon rural mail carriers, held on the summit of Mc-Kenzie Pass, last Sunday. While there they witnessed the dedication of a memorial cairn, erected to the memory of John T. Craig, a carrier who lost his life there in 1897.
Many notables of Oregon attended the dedication.

Fought a Bear—

While herding sheep above Carson Springs, Washington, last week, Don Mathews encountered a bear. Don tried to scare bruin away, but nix on that. Bruin was on the war path and made an attack on young Mathews, inflicting severe scratches and several deep wounds before it was scared away.

Sojourning At Seaside—

The hot weather has no terrors for George Cunningham and family, for they are at Seaside this week, having gone to that resort last Friday and will spend a week there.
While they are away Aaron Davis is in charge of the O. T. section over which George has jurisdiction.

Installed Ceiling Fan—

Customers at the Rainbow restaurant will now be regaled with breezes from a large ceiling fan, a late installation by Manager Fraley.
The fan is one of the latest turned out by the Western Electric company, has four leaves and is adjusted to several speeds. Orville Fraley placed the fan in position and made the electrical connections.

John Mannion Recovering—

John Mannion, who has been ill for the past year, is in The Dalles, where he is taking treatment at the Mid-Columbia hospital. John has been at the county seat the past six weeks and says it will be fully two months before he will be able to return to Maupin. He is improving in health.

Ranch House Burns—

The residence on the Dane ranch, known as the Old Wilson place, just west of the Weberg ranch on the Flat, was entirely consumed by fire last Thursday morning, the fire being discovered by John Judkins, occupant, about 1:30 o'clock. The Judkins' lost practically everything they owned, barely escaping the flames nearly clothed.

Enjoyed Fish Dinner—

Dr. Elwood and Billy Heckman journeyed to the John Confer camp on the shores of Clear Lake last Sunday morning. They went in answer to an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Cofer, and took dinner at the camp. The piece de resistance of the menu was trout, of which John and his wife had taken a large number from the lake.

Big Load of Loganberries—

Oliver Resh took a load of cattle to Portland Sunday, returning Monday. When he came home the Resh truck was loaded with 100 cases of fine loganberries, the Resh store having received orders for nearly that many. They sold at $1.75 per case.

Visited in Portland—

Bob Wilson, wife and son, Edmund, went to Portland early Sunday morning and spent the day there with relatives. Miss Olive Turner, who had been at her parents' home in Maupin, accompanied the Wilsons to Portland, returning to her work at Fulop's big clothing store.

Made Nineteen Trips—

Dr. Elwood went to Portland last week making the trip via the Wap-initia cut-off highway. That trip made the 19th our worthy physician had made over that throughfare.

Killed Big Rattler—

While at work around his new residence one day last week Arthur Morris was attracted by the barking of his dog. Investigating he found a rattlesnake coiled up under the front porch. He procured a club and soon sent the rattler to snake heaven. The reptile was 41 inches in length and as big around as Art's wrist. It bore eight rattles and a button.

Fine Ginger Ale

Billy Baxter ginger ale, made of pure mineral springs water, 15 cents and 25 cents a bottle at the Maupin Drug Store.

Vale—Highway in this vicinity will be oiled by J. C. Compton.

Supper in the Woods

NOW that the weather is warm and balmy, isn't it fun to slip some food into appropriate containers and drive out to the woods for your supper? Such a meal may be the simplest imaginable and need not involve even building a fire.
Cold meat, sandwiches, perhaps fresh fruit and cup cakes, and hot coffee carried in the thermos bottle are ample for the meal. A typical menu is:

- Cold Fried Chicken
Potato Chips
Sardine Sandwich
Sweet Fruit Sandwich
Fresh Fruit
Chocolate Cup Cakes
Hot Coffee

To make an unusual sardine sandwich, bone and mash a can of sardines. Mix with one tablespoon chopped ripe olives, one tablespoon lemon juice, two tablespoons chopped, pickled beets and three tablespoons mayonnaise. Spread between thinly sliced white bread.

Sweet Sandwiches

For the sweet sandwich, mash two cream cheeses, add one-fourth cup of well-drained crushed pineapple and one-fourth cup of strawberry preserves and cream well.
Use between thin slices of buttered whole-wheat bread.

Another excellent picnic sandwich consists of three-fourths cup cold baked beans, one-fourth cup chopped celery, one-fourth cup chili sauce mixed together and spread between buttered slices of canned Boston brown bread.

Last week we sent out subscription statements to many delinquents. So far none have responded. What's the matter? All short, as we are?

Time Saving Recipes

"I MUST hurry home and get dinner." How often have you heard someone break up a pleasant party with those words? Of course, there has to be a dinner to satisfy hungry appetites, but there are meals which can be prepared in a minimum of time — and they are the ones to plan when you expect to be out the whole afternoon.

One of the secrets of time saving is to use canned meats or fish. Vienna sausage, roast beef, corned beef, veal loaf, salmon, tuna fish and others come in cans. Canned vegetables and fruits, too, will save many minutes of laborious peeling and cooking. Their use means that the main ingredients of your menu are already prepared.

A Half-Hour Menu

The following menu can be prepared easily in half an hour and is filling enough for even the hungriest little boy: Tuna Fish au Gratin, Buttered Peas, Bofled Potatoes, Hot Biscuits and Jelly, Tomato and Lettuce Salad, Fruit Compote, Cookies.

The peas are heated in the juice from the can, and then seasoned with butter, pepper and salt. By slicing the potatoes thin and boiling them in a tightly covered vessel they will cook in ten or fifteen minutes. And biscuits, of course, take only a few minutes to prepare.

To prepare the fish, shred contents of a large can of tuna. Melt two tablespoons butter, stir in two tablespoons flour, one-eighth teaspoon paprika, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and one-half teaspoon salt.
Add one cup of milk gradually and stir until thick; add one cup grated cheese and stir until melted. Combine with the fish, pour into a buttered baking dish, cover with one fourth cup buttered crumbs and brown a few minutes in a very hot oven.

A can of fruits for salad can be left to chill in the ice box during the day and will make a delicious compote for dessert. Or you might use a pudding or pie that had been made in the morning.
