Sun Proved to Be Hot

Bates Shattuck says that sun tan may be all right for women out for men it is not just the right thing. Last week Bates and wife were at East Lake. During their stay there Fate donned a bathing suit and short sweater. He got aboard a boat and proceeded to bathe in the sun. As a result he is hobbling around like a rheumatic, just because the sun blistered spots on his legs and on other spots burned clear through the skin tissue. When he came home he went under the doctor's care and showed up for work yesterday a. m. Hereafter Bates will do his sun bathing under wraps.

Raising Gold Fish

Mrs. L. S. Stovall has an outdoor aquarium in which she has had a number of gold fish. Recently Mrs. Stovall noticed several tiny minnows swimming in the water and upon close scrutiny found they were progeny of the other fish. There were about 30 in number. Nearly all those died off and later another school of minnows were seen. Mrs. Stovall says she is sure the older fish spawned and that the little fish are the result. One of her gold fish recently committed suicide by flopping out of the aquarium.

Mrs. Frank McCorkle Gaining

While returning from The Dalles on Tuesday The Times men talked with Frank McCorkle, lately reported to have suffered a second attack of paralysis. Frank says he had no more paralysis that any healthy man and that he felt as good as at any time of late years. Mr. McCorkle had just returned from Odell lake, where his wife was sojourning. He said the outdoors was working a miracle with his wife and that she was gaining in weight daily, also that her general health was improving. He will return to the lake the first of next week.

Pick Ups About Town

Bates Shattuck is not much of a believer in sun treatments. He recently spent several days at East Lake. During his stay there Bates was hit with the idea that sun bath might do him what some doctors claim to be good—give him a coat of tan and loosen up a few muscle-bound bodily members. Never again, says Bates. He got the sun bath all right and in acquiring the coat of tan lost several inches of cuticle from his nether limbs. Not only blister appeared but in places the sun burned clear down to the scar tissue, leaving our worthy merchant and ardent fisherman in a somewhat lamed condition.

In speaking of The Times family leaving Maupin a certain man is credited with the statement that he had taken the paper 10 years and had not paid a cent on subscription. We looked up his standing on our list and it showed that he had paid us $4.50 one time and still owes three years' newspaper dues. Of course he will pay up, for he is one man who loves a joke and who is known as a man who always pays his just debts. So why should we worry?

Some people do not seem to realize that a car gains momentum when going down hill and that danger lurks on every curve. The spectacle of a fine Cadillac car being ruined because of a driver's anxiety to get somewhere should prove a deterrent to others. Hills slant downward as well as upward. Going the latter way there is not much danger, for it takes power to overcome gravity. Traveling down hill gravity is somewhat overcome and a car will speed along, gathering momentum as it roared. It is then that a little slower should be the medium of safety and would obviate many serious spills and loss of life.

"Shorty" Miller, besides being some paint slinger, is a daddy fly caster. Tuesday evening, while waiting for his better half to prepare supper at their camp on the flat on the east side, took his rod and made two casts. Each one netted a fine trout, which provided the Miller family with fresh fish for the evening repast. Shorty did not give us the length of the trout but qualified his story by saying the two gave the four in the family all the trout they could eat at one sitting.

The Times, after this week will be a thing of the past so far as local publication goes. We have labored hard to make the paper conform to the size and progressive spirit of Maupin. That we have succeeded that undertaking is shown by the many words of regret that we are about to leave. It comes hard to say goodbye to the many whom we have come in contact with during our stay here. We wish all here and hereabouts the best of luck and hope to learn of the eventual completion of the Wapinitia irrigation project and a colonization of the many rich acres covered by that system. When that has been accomplished Maupin will come into its own and become by far the best and largest town in this section of Oregon.
