THE CARY HARDWARE COMPANY

GARFIELD

Mrs. Sarah Palmateer and her daughter, Mrs. Rena Duncan, are visiting relatives in Eastern Oregon.

J H Palmateer has purchased a new buggy, and was out trying to captivate the young ladies with it Sunday. While returning home he ran over a log and stump and was thrown out. He collected a little of Clackamas county's valuable real estate, but was not injured.

Miss Lucretia Lemon was calling on Mrs. Josa Huffman, Monday.

As J E Stubbs was returning home from Cazadero, Sunday evening, he encountered a bear on the trail between said place and the post office.

Walter Shriner was a guest at the home of W B Lemon, Friday evening.

A special meeting of the Garfield Grange will be held Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing the entertainment soon to be given, and to discuss a proposition regarding a fruit cannery at Estacada.

The funeral of Ethel Knight was conducted at Mt. Zion cemetery Saturday. Many friends were present.

The Garfield Literary Society meets Friday evening at 7:30 in the Irwin school house. The subject of the debate is: "Resolved that the minority is more often in the right than the majority." A program of recitations and readings will be rendered. A spicy society paper of neighborhood gossip will be read by the editor, E C Huffman. One week from Friday, the society will give a mock trial. J E Stubbs, our school teacher, has been arrested on the charge of chicken stealing. F M Gill will act as presiding judge, E C Huffman, Atty. for the prosecution, Mr.

Mr. Wallace, the teacher of the Tracy school, is seriously ill with pneumonia. Wallace Jr., for the defense, C A Looney, bailiff. Our witnesses have been appointed for each side. The public are invited to be present and enjoy themselves.

John Irwin killed a large specimen of the horned owl, Tuesday morning.

Frank Irwin and wife are visiting his parents at Garfield this week.

W R Oatfield, local supervisor, has made some needed improvements on our road to Estacada. He is now opening the Huxley Cazadero road. Mr. Oatfield has been as successful a supervisor as we have ever had.

SMILES

Jones-- Estacada's merchants are a straw, a barrel-maker, and a question.

Thompkins--How do you make that out? Jones--Is not a Reed a straw, Cooper a barrel-maker, and Howe? a question?

What kind of cloth was on all the bulletin boards in the U. S. the day after the election? Rosie felt--Roosevelt.

The success of Estacada's brick and tile plant will be up to-Morrow.

F. M Gill.

Mrs. Chas. Ferry and daughter Mildred, arrived home from Sumpter Wed. T B Lawrence, a cousin, accompanied them, and will remain here.

The Amusement Club met last night and organized by electing officers as follows:--W A Jones, Pres. B O Boswell, Secy.; executive committee, H W Green, L Tucker and W A Jones; Floor managers, L Rolf and L Tucker. The officers are elected for thirty days. It was agreed that the club would give a Hard Time ball on New Year's eve.

The first child born in Estacada was born to Mrs. Lucy Adaline Livingston on September 21, 1904, and was named Wil-

TO THE READER

We are sending many copies of The News, marked "sample copy", to the people. These are sent with the hope that the recipient may become a regular subscriber. The copies are free when they are marked. We want everyone in the Eastern part of Clackamas county to take the paper, and will make every honorable effort to make the paper worthy of a generous and hearty support. It is difficult to see each one personally, and if we can not see you, kindly fill out and mail the following blank to us, and The News will be sent you.

William H. Livingston. For this honor, Wm. H. has been deeded lot 4, block 27, in Estacada, by the Oregon Townsite Co. It was a promise the company made, that the first child born in the town would be given a lot. It was on a suggestion from Dr. Haviland that the company made the promise, and the Doctor's son came very near winning the prize.

Mr. Alanson M. Himes, who visited us last Saturday, is an active worker in the Natural Order Society of Portland which meets in the Alisky building, Portland, every Sunday at 8 in the evening, beginning Dec. 11. This is a sort of a Single Tax society whose work it will be to try to correct the supposed ills this country and its political parties are subject to.
