A new stock of Christmas goods at Reed & Cooper's,

Don't forget the Christmas dinner to be served at the Hotel Estacada.

C. H. Shutte has sold his farm at Lacerter, and has leased the Park hotel until April 1.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovelace is just recovering from quite a severe sickness.

The Estacada fire company is purchasing a new fire bell, 34 inches in diameter and to cost about 45.00.

W. J. Mountane of Mankato, and T. J. Hanify of Anoka, Minn., were here with A. F. Campbell, Wed.

Rev. McPherson will preach in Estacada next Sunday at 11 a. m. and Rev. Stubbs will preach in the evening.

Mrs. Bither has a very nice display of Christmas toys and novelties at her Candy Store. Also fresh taffy every week.

Posters will soon be out announcing a Grand Hard Time Ball New Year's Eve by the Estacada Amusement Club.

The ladies of the Sewing Circle wish to thank the public for the liberal patronage given them at their supper and luncheon.

Charles Ferry met with quite an accident Monday by falling against a double bladed ax, receiving a bad cut on the right side of his body.

R. A. Stratton of Sand Point, Idaho, was here this week investigating the future prospects of the town, and he has rented the Carpenter residence. His family will arrive here later. Mr. Stratton is an old friend and acquaintance of A. F. Campbell.

Messrs. Morrow and Boner have the contract of moving the warehouse building across the railroad track and put it on a lot in the west part of town for the new Estacada Wooden Manufacturing Company. This company is formed for the purpose of turning out all kinds of finished wood material, and P. Turner & Co. of Portland have agreed to take all the factory will turn out.

TALBERT-RYCKMAN.

On Saturday, December 10, 1904, occurred the marriage of Miss Jessie Talbert to Mr. M. L. Ryckman. The marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Talbert, parents of the bride, in Clackamas, Rev. W. B. Moore officiating. The young people are well known here and in Clackamas county, and have many friends who wish them a long and happy married life.

The past week has been rather damp, yesterday's rain ending in a regular downpour. Today has been bright and warm.

Mrs. Edward Oblander returned home Saturday from Portland after attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Anna Smith.

H. W. Downing and three children are expected home this week, from Fair Oaks, Cal. where they have been on a visit to Mr. Downing's parents.

Ye editor and wife were pleasantly surprised last Friday by a visit from Miss Adelle and Mazelle Mulkey, former friends and acquaintances from Douglas county. They are teaching at Dodge and Springwater respectively.

Garfield news came in just as we were closing the last form, but room is made for: A 2-year old, roan steer, said to belong to Ed. Burnet of Eagle Creek, is at the farm of J. P. Irvin. The steer is marked with a slit in the left ear, and a half under-crop on the right ear.

Three of our young, town ideas organized themselves into a royal triumvirate last Sunday, and arming themselves with artillery, they sallied out to see and to conquer the world. However, they got no further than Eagle Creek where they were overtaken at 12 o'clock Sunday night in an old shack by a searching party and were brought back and were perfectly delighted to return.

Wednesday evening the Ladies' Sewing Circle served supper to the public at the Portland restaurant at 25c a plate, and Thursday noon they served luncheon at 15c a plate. The receipts amounted to $28.80 which is to be expended in getting up a Christmas tree for the children. After seeing and partaking of the dinner the Circle served we are certain the Christmas tree and doings will be a grand success.
