LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Make it a heppy New Year.

W. H. Shankland and wife near Currinsville are recovering from a sick spell.

H. W. Downing came home from Boring and spent New Years with his family.

Mrs. Noah Heiple of Currinsville who was quite ill last week, is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Henry Landwehr has been quite ill for some time, and does not seem to improve any.

Mrs. John F. Lovelace is out at Woodlawn spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Commons.

All who are indebted to us are requested to settle at once.

—The Cary Hardware Co.

A. J. Hatfield, a merchant from North Dakota, was looking around the town last week with a view to investing.

F. M. Gill goes to Dufur, Wasco county, next week. Mr. Gill is one of the active and best members of the community, and his absence will be felt.

R. A. Stratton and son arrived here from Sand Point, Idaho, Wednesday. Mr. Stratton is making preparations for the remainder of his family who will soon arrive here.

Mason Warnock of Springwater, an old resident of this part of Oregon, has gone to Eastern Oregon to spend the rest of the winter. His ~~went out there several weeks ago.~~

The government is asking for bids for carrying the mail from Estacada to Springwater from Feb. 1, '05 to June 30, 1906, six times a week. The successful bidder to give a bond of $500.

Mrs. H. Cooper, wife of Merchant Cooper, met with a slight accident one day last week which has caused her considerable pain. In walking the stairway she sprained a foot.

Major and Mrs. Wm. K. Haviland and Doctor and Mrs. Wm. K. Haviland went to Portland last Saturday and were present that evening at the marriage of Miss Mary Boys, niece and cousin respectively of the Major and Doctor.

The Palace Meat Market is advertising its Old Reliable brand of bacon. Mr. Oblander makes under his own reliable process all the bacon that he sells, and the method he uses makes a pure, sweet, palatable bacon that pleases customers.

Ed. Hunt has THE NEWS sent to his father, John Hunt, at Lacey, Iowa. If everyone who has close relatives or friends outside of Oregon would order the paper sent to them for a short time it would help greatly to advertise our town and county, and the cost would be but a trifle.

C. C. Shafford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shafford, has been nominated as Estacada's first city treasurer. At the ratification meeting last Thursday his name was placed on the charter for that office.

Changes are made this issue, in the ad. of Oregon Water Power Townsite Company, proprietors of the Estacada townsite; the ad of the Cary Hardware Company, the ad of W. A. Jones, livery and express line; and the ad of the Estacada Pharmacy.

R. L. Ludlam, Jr., missionary for Southwestern Wash., spent a couple days here this week investigating the religious field. Mr. Ludlam is with the Baptist denomination, and informed us that if they can get a lot given them that they would begin at once the building of a church here, and station a minister to work in this field.

The News has it from a most reliable source, the Oregon Water Power Townsite Co., that a bank will be established in Estacada early next spring. The townsite company have the promise from a reliable firm that the latter will put up a building and start a general banking house. This is another of the many enterprises that Estacada will have within a year.

At the regular meeting of the Estacada Improvement Club last week, the new proposed city charter was read and finally adopted. It was our intention to review the charter this week, but as it is to be reconsidered and some changes made at the meeting tonight further mention of it is put over for next week. Attorney William T. Muir, council for the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company, drafted the charter and follows, in many respects, the city charter of Portland.

There has been some drainage work done on the business streets of the town, which has made quite an improvement. The work was proposed by the City Improvement Club and M. C. Adkins and W. F. Cary headed a committee that overseen the work. Drains were dug around at the foot of the terrace and the water from the up-land diverted from the business part of the town. The water that gets down town now passes away by means of ditches, and a sewer has been put down on the east side of Broadway between Secondstreet and the railway. The expense has been born by popular donation. No more water is crossing the streets, and in they will be in a better condition.
