Palmer has arrived home after a long visit to her parents at Fulton. The Workmen here had an installation of officers Thursday, Brother Ralph Feeney, grand pastmaster & organizer, acted as installing officer. An oyster supper was served after the installation, and a few select musical selections were given by members and everyone went home full and happy after an enjoyable evening. T A Foster and wife were in town to see their parents, J W Root and wife. Arthur Powell, a prominent New York artist came here to see his nephew, Wm. Morand last week. The later and wife were at Dayton to visit relatives. The Boring mill has shut down again but will begin again Wed.

It is said the Oregon Water Power & Railway company has given assurances to people along the line that a double track will be in operation as far as Lentz by July 1 this year. The present service is inadequate at certain times of the day, especially on Sundays, when hundreds of people make the trip to Estacada or some of the many suburbs along the line. Last Sunday afternoon the regular 15 minute cars were full, and men and women stood up in the aisles and on the rear platforms. Some of them were on a pleasure trip, and they complained that there was no pleasure in it.—Tuesday's Journal.
