

GARFIELD

J P Irvin is experiencing an attack of something akin to erysipelas. Those who have not had coughs or colds the past week are in the minority. Mr. and Mrs. Blue of Portland were the guests of H Epperson Sunday, as was also Wm. Davis Sr of Garfield. Wm. Davis Jr. and wife were the hosts of an enjoyable party an evening this week. The grange met Saturday with an attendance of over 60. The following officers were installed for the year, by Deputy Master Ed. Bates, Sr: Wm. Holder, W. M.; Chas. Duncan; Overseer; Kate Irvin, Lecturer; Floyd Holder, Secretary; Lethe Wills, Treasurer; Ralph Lemon, Asst. Steward; Cora Vocum, Lady Asst. Steward; Walter Lemon, Inside Gatekeeper; Phillip Wagner, Outside Gatekeeper. Wm Cary was initiated into the mysteries of the first and second degree of the grange.

BORING NEWS

Henry Lang gave a party in Roots hall, Saturday evening being Mr. Lang's birthday. A large crowd of young people were present. The young folks played games until about 12 o'clock when they were served with a nice luncheon. Everyone reports having had a fine time. The Endeavor singing school was held at O A Palmer's last Sunday evening. Rev David Wolf was there and held a short praise service.
