LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Beautiful snow, Monday.
An idea—the Inaugural ball.
It's, the City of Estacada, now.
Notice the Cary Hardware Company's new ad?

Leola Krigbaum of Garfield went to Portland Friday last.

Estacada's p. o. was not robbed; it still has it's 72 cents.

Dr. Smith: Eagle Creek is the coming city of the country.

Wm. Delapp has been improving his residence on Currin street.

Good business sites in Estacada are sought after by newcomers.

Contractor Miller and Milt Overt are to extend the furniture store up another story.

Preparations are in progress for a grand inaugural ball at Eagle Creek on March 4th.

Posters are out announcing that a dance will be given by the Amusement Club on the 22nd.

Conductor H. F. Lebreque and Moterman King of car 26 have been off duty the past week on account of bad colds.

Is Mt. Hood in Clackamas county? Or is it on the line which divides this county from Wasco? Who can answer the question?

School Clerk J. F. Lovelace has just completed the census of Estacada's school district, and he finds 86 school children here—70 more than one year ago.

The city school closed Tuesday for the rest of the week, to permit the teacher to attend the examination. It will start again Monday for a ten weeks' term.

George and Jordan Shultz have arrived with the first car load of goods for their clothing store. Mr. A. F. Shultz is to arrive today with another car load.

A. E. Barr and family arrived in Estacada last Saturday and are occupying rooms up stairs in the store building. The News is pleased to see people come here to live.

Postmaster Haviland came out from Portland, Monday and attended to some official business and returned to the city. He returns to Estacada next Sunday to remain.

D. C. Crane of Portland has been looking the prospects over here and has decided to locate here. He is an engineer by trade. Mrs. Crane will establish herself in the millinery business here.

The bill providing for the incorporation of the City of Estacada has been reported signed by the governor. Now, will the mayor or recorder please inform us at what stage of existence the city is at?

The latest: Russia is to sue for a piece of Manchuria.

Councilman Boswell has been very busy the past week improving his suburban property.

Mr. Johnson of Sherwood is here today looking over the Meeks meat market property with a view of buying it.

The News is soon to publish one or two editions that will contain a great deal of special reading about the town, its people and the country in general. Make your plans to be interested in these editions.

Rev. H. N. Smith was out from Portland yesterday making arrangements in Sunday School work. The Odd Fellows building being rented to A. F. Shultz & Son for a clothing store, it was necessary to find another place for the school and the church services. "Billy's Place" will be used as a church. It is not often that a saloon building is turned into a church, but this is once that such is the case.

The lake at the O. W. P. & Ry. Co.'s Coney Island resort on the banks of the Willamette river below the golf links, and the construction of which has been let to Contractor Reed will be 320 feet long, 170 feet wide and four feet deep. It is to be cemented on the bottom and sides with a 13 inch layer and wall of cement, and will be known as Schutes Lake. Light pleasure crafts of various kinds will be put on it for the use of pleasure seekers.

A. F. Shultz & Son, Will Locate in Estacada.

A. F. Shultz who was here last week has concluded to locate in Estacada, and has purchased business lots on which he will put up a store building. He has also rented the Odd Fellow building as a temporary quarters for his clothing business. Mr. Shultz carries a $9,000 stock in his present store at Oregon City, and his coming to Estacada means a great deal for this new city. It will not be long now until Portland people and others living near the city will be coming to Estacada for their ready made furnishings. It is well understood that mercantile and other firms living outside, yet adjacent to Portland can undersell the city merchant, not considering, of course, the wholesale houses. None know this quite so well as the buying public in the city.
