LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

M. L. Ryckman was in Portland Tuesday.

J. W. Shafford spent last Sunday with his people in Estacada.

H. H. Eyman is having some improvements done to his property on Currin street.

The Cary boys have purchased the Liebermann farm of 80 acres a half mile north of town.

V. Wilcox has gone to Tolena, and Fritz Birdenfelt is now sole proprietor of the blacksmith shop.

J. F. Lovelace has rented the rooms where they are living to a family who is to move here from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morrow were out from Portland Sunday, and the latter visited with Mrs. A. Morrow and family.

L. M. Yocum and Walter Sniffin are going to give a dance to the public in the Garfield grange hall the 11th of next month.

Agent Cleveland came up from Gresham Tuesday to adjust the loss Frank Harkenrider had in losing his house by fire last Thursday.

Ed. Oblander, proprietor of the Palace meat market, says that he is going to keep fish in his market after this, and the kinds all the people like.

Chas. Hossy who was acting as section foreman while Frank Webster was sick, had a collision with the train, and the speeder was disabled.

D. Nunemaker, one of the pioneer contractors, was out from Portland, Sunday, to see how everything was. He is building a nice residence on the Heights for Adolph Dekum.

A sidetrack is being put in at the crossing on the railroad a mile north of town for the convenience of the Springwater sawmill that is located just west of the track at that place.

The first building that was built in Estacada has been moved from its location on Main street over near the Wood Manufacturing Company's factory to be used as an office building by the company.

The Estacada Wood Manufacturing Company has had a number of men at work this week clearing the ground for the railroad sidetracks that are to be built over to and along side of the company's factory.

W. M. Durrell, of Gresham, has bought two lots at the corner of 4th and Zobrist streets, and will build a large barn thereon about April 1, and will run a feed yard and barn. He will bring in a fine Percheon stallion, and will keep several other thoroughbred horses.

F. W. Deeth has been confined to his home for several days with the popular grip.

Frank Harkenrider orders THE NEWS sent to his daughter, Ida, at Portland, who has a responsible position in the Meier & Frank store.

Extensive preparations are on for a real inaugural ball at Eagle Creek on the 4th of next month. President Roosevelt should certainly feel pleased to have his far-away constituents' dance at his inauguration.

Mrs. T. J. Mathews continues to be quite ill. She has been in the care of a physician for several weeks for asthma and heart trouble, and now she has an attack of the grip which is making her recovery more difficult.

P. T. Meeks sold his meat market property on Broadway last week to F. M. Lantz, of Gresham, who is fixing the shop up, and he expects, by the first of next month, to have a firstclass meat market open for business.

Contractors Reed and Deeth have secured from the railroad company the job of putting up several buildings at Coney Island, among them are, the laughing gallery, the house of Maze or trouble, and the band stand the latter alone to cost $1,000.

It was originally intended that the bill providing for the incorporation of Estacada should have the emergency clause attached, but the governor refused to sign any bill with such a clause attached, and the bill will not be a law till the ninety days elapses.

Sam L. Beary, who dishes out the finest candies in the world to the people at 323 Morrison, Portland, sends in his subscription to THE NEWS, and says he expects in a short time to see Estacada the largest city in Clackamas county outside of Oregon City.

J. T. Wallace who teaches school near Garfield lost about all his household effects last Thursday by fire. Only a part of the bedding was saved. The family had recently moved into Harkenrider's house. The house was entirely destroyed. The cause of the fire is not known.

H. Epperson was at Portland last Friday on business. Mr. Epperson owns one of the finest farms in the county three miles northeast of Estacada. He has lived here for several years, and was the first person to attract railroad capital to the fact that Eastern Clackamas county offered an excellent field for a railway. He was for a long time in the employ of the company in its preparatory work of building the road out from Portland. Mr. Epperson has great faith in the rapid development of the country.
