Clackamas Co. Taxes

May be paid at the office of the Clackamas Title Company, 608 Chamber of Commerce Bldg. in Portland, where a copy of the Tax Roll is kept.

Tax payers finding it more convenient to pay in Portland may save themselves the cost and time of a trip to Oregon City for a nominal fee of 25 cents.

Until March 15th the office of the Sheriff is apt to be very busy while a few minutes suffices to pay at the office of the Clackamas Title Company in Portland. Payment before March 15th will save a 3 per cent rebate.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Estacada: Hello, Springwater, at the 'phone?

Springwater: Yes, and it is all-right, isn't it? We'll enjoy and appreciate it.

Now for warm sunshine.

Everyone should be loyal to home interests.

Born, Monday, March 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phelps, a eleven pound son.

Born, on Sunday, March 19, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maskell, a nine pound girl.

H. Cooper: Yes, we are getting in new goods, new stock, nearly every day.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its next meeting April 8th at the home of Mrs. Williams.

Carpenters Havens and Lindsey have put up the building for the fire company's apparatus.

Several who are working at The Oaks came home and spent Sunday last with their families.

Herbert Tracy, of the Portland Machine Company, was here a part of last week, assisting the Estacada Wood Mfg. Co.

Every lady will profit by reading the ad of the Cary Cash Hardware this week. This store makes an extraordinary offer.

Attorney Buchanan, who is doing the landscape gardening for the O. W. P. & Ry. Co., expects his wife home next Monday.

Articles of incorporation for Garfield grange 317, were filed in the County Clerk's office last week with Wm. Holder, worthy master; Chas. Duncan, worthy overseer; and F. B. Holder, worthy secretary, as incorporators. The grange is perpetual and it has property valued at $200.

Rev. R. L. Cartrite, of Silverton, was in town Monday and Tuesday. Monday evening he preached to an audience in Reed's hall. He is a follower of the Christian faith, and possibly, he, or a brother preacher, will continue work here. Six families, members of the Christian denomination, live in Estacada.

Hon. Geo. C. Brownell has his professional card in The News.

Mrs. A. E. Barr remained in the city with friends for a few days.

The News enjoyed a call, Monday, from Uncle James Gibson, of Eagle Creek. Mr. Gibson had been on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. John Read, and family across the river.

T. J. Reagan arrived here a few days ago from Boise, Idaho. He is formerly from South Dakota and has a number of old acquaintances here. He is thinking of making his home here.

Proprietor Richards has had several rooms newly furnished in connection with the restaurant, and intends conducting a lodging house with the restaurant. The furnishings were purchased of H. Cooper, the local house furnisher.

The Estacada Telephone & Telegraph company has engaged Miss Stella O. Womer to perform the duties of telephone girl in the company's central office. Miss Womer is a daughter of E. S. Womer. In connection with the 'phone work she will be appointed deputy post-mistress, and take care of the office. Miss Womer will arrive here soon from their home in Tyrone, Pa. and in the meantime Mr. Womer will assist in the office.

Do not expect the other fellow to make all the concessions, you may be disappointed. Most everyone is a little selfish—even Russia.

Ladies, Attention

On Saturday of this week, April 1st, Mrs. Crane will have her first millinery opening. All the ladies, whether wishing to purchase or not, have a cordial invitation to call and see what she has in Hats, and other Millinery goods.
