

ARMY CHAPLAIN SEVERE KIDNEY and BLADDER TROUBLE

HALF OUR ILLS ARE CATARRH.

Thousands of People Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It is Catarrh.

Mr. David L. Jaycox, Chaplain Clarinda, I. O. G. T., and Chaplain G. A. R., 865 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., writes:

"I am an old war veteran. I contracted severe bladder and kidney trouble. I spent hundreds of dollars and consulted a host of doctors, but neither did me any good.

"Peruna has proven the best medicine I ever used. My pains are gone and I believe myself to be cured. I feel well and would not be without a bottle in time of need for ten times its cost."

Hundreds of war veterans have kidney and bladder trouble.

Impure drinking water, sleeping on the ground, and all manner of exposures to wet and cold weather produced catarrh of the kidneys and bladder.

All cruelty springs from hard-heartedness and weakness.—Seneca.

DREAD OF HUMANITY

I am compelled by a sense of gratitude to tell you the great good your remedy has done me in a case of Contagious Blood Poison. Among other symptoms I was severely afflicted with Rheumatism, and got almost past going. The disease got a firm hold upon my system; my blood was thoroughly poisoned with the virus. I lost in weight, was run down, had sore throat, eruptions, spots and other evidences of the disease. I was truly in a bad shape when I began the use of S. S. S., but the persistent use of it brought me out of my trouble safe and sound, and I have the courage to publicly testify to the virtues of your great blood remedy, S. S. S., and to recommend it to all blood-poison sufferers, sincerely believing if it is taken according to directions, and given a fair trial, it will thoroughly eliminate every particle of the virus. JAMES CURRAN, Stark Hotel, Greensburg, Pa.

Painful swellings in the groins, red eruptions upon the skin, sores in the mouth and loss of hair and eyebrows, are some of the symptoms of this vile disease. S. S. S. is an antidote for the awful virus that attacks and destroys even the bones. S. S. S. contains no Mercury, Potash or other mineral ingredient. We offer $1.000 for proof that it is not absolutely vegetable. Home treatment book giving the symptoms and other interesting and valuable information about this disease, mailed free. Our physicians advise free those who write us.

It was not until Peruna came into use, however, that these old soldiers found a remedy that would actually cure them.

More cases of catarrh of kidneys and bladder have been cured by Peruna than all other medicines combined.

In After Years.
Husband—When we were married you confessed entire faith in my vacuity, but now you don't seem to believe a word I say.
Wife—Yes, but this is a progressive age, you know, and even a confession of faith needs to be revised occasionally.

She—I understand that Sarah Ann married a struggling young man. He—Yes, he struggled all right, but he couldn't get away.
Dolly—He's one of those men who won't take no for an answer. Madge—What are you going to do? Dolly—Why, tell him yes.—Town Topics.
Friend—What is hope? Poet—It's something that wakes you up at four o'clock in the morning when the postman doesn't come around till ten.—Ram's Horn.
He—My father is a banker, and has never been inside a theater in his life. She—Really? My father is an actor, and has never been inside a bank in his life.—Judy.

Newrich—How'd you get along at the dinner? Mrs. Newrich—Fine. When they eat pie with a fork, I done it, too, so as not to let 'em see their break.—New York Sun.

Judge—The next person who interrupts the proceedings of this court will be expelled from the room! Prisoner—Hoo-ray! Whoopee-ee! Now, lemme go!—Chicago News.

Bank President—We're ruined! The cashier has absconded with one hundred thousand dollars. Director—Don't get excited. He has left a note offering to take us into partnership.

Mrs. Oatcake (reading newspaper)—Gracious me! Mr. Murdock has been arrested. It was discovered that he had twenty wives, and all are living! Farmer Oatcake—O-oh! another case of Brigham-y.—Puck.

Boarder (warmly)—Oh, I know every one of the tricks of your trade. Do you think I have lived in boarding-houses twenty years for nothing? Landlady (frigidly)—I shouldn't be at all surprised.—New Yorker.

"Let me see, a cynic is aman who is tired of the world, is he not?" the young student of language asked. "No, no, my child," replied the knowing tutor: "a cynic is a man of whom the world is tired."—Pick-Me-Up.

The Senator—Why mustn't I vote for that bill? Constituent—Because the people don't want it, Senator. The Senator—What have the people got to do with it? Ain't election over, hey?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

After the wedding: He—What are you crying for, love? She—Over papa's wedding present—boo—hoo. He—Why, what's the matter with it? She—It's nothing but a receipted bill for the gas we used up during our courtship.—Pick-Me-Up.

Uncle John—So you don't like your teacher, Tommy? Tommy (savagely)—No, I don't. I wish he was at the bottom of the sea! Uncle John—Oh, come now, Tommy! That's too much to say. Tommy—Well, I wish he was at the bottom of Jopes' mill pond, then.—Philadelphia Press.

Just resentment: Young Husband—Bertha, did you ask the grocer to show you some of those seedless beans I was telling you about this morning? Young Wife—Yes, and if you want your slippers warmed before you put them on you can warm them yourself, sir. I won't.—Chicago Tribune.

The Man—Your daughter telephoned me to call and fix your piano. Her Father—What's the matter with it? The Man—One of the strings is broken. Her Father—What will it cost to repair the broken string? The Man—Two dollars. Her Father—Well, here's $5. Break the rest of 'em.—Chicago News.

"Paw," asked little Johnny, "what's a compromise?" "That, my son," replied the wise father, "depends on whom it's made with. For instance, if I make a compromise with a business man, I go about half way. But if I make a compromise with your mother, why, I—er—I go all the way."—Houston Chronicle.
