LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Salmon in the Clackamas below the dam at Cazadero are spawning, and fishing is not permitted in these waters.

Martin Anderson, a former friend of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell, from B. C., visited at the latter's home here last Sunday.

Vetsch is making the best hay crop this year, and a great many complain that it has been a little too wet for other hay crops.

Word comes from B. O. Boswell at Rossland, B. C. that he is well and enjoying his work, but that he has a longing etc. for home and its comforts.

The management expects to make the Fourth of July celebration at the Lewis and Clark Exposition the best and biggest Portland has ever experienced.

Mrs. Minnie Heylman and W. H. Heylman, aunt and son respectively of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heylman arrived from Spokane, Monday, and will remain a few weeks.

Among the pupils of the Currinsville school who were granted 8th grade diplomas this year were: Minnie Steiman, Zoa Irwin, Katie Currin and Lonnie Van Dyke.

Miss Jesse Yarnell an instructor of elocution in the Seattle schools, and Miss Esther Yarnell, a teacher in the Crescent City schools, were visiting at the Heylman home last Sunday.

Another passenger car has been placed on the run between Portland and Estacada for Saturday nights only. It leaves Portland at 11 p. m. arrives at Estacada at 12:30 a. m. and returns to Portland.

E. S. Womer was relieved for a few days by Miss Johnson from his duties as mail distributor and hello boy. He has secured a lease of the Johnson property and expects his family out from Pennsylvania soon.

A vegetable peddler from near Gresham was here a day last week, but the city marshal interfered with his selling on the streets. The fellow did not sell to the grocery stores. Give the home producer the preference, and buy of others what you can not get at home.

Merchant Howe in his ad speaks of his new dry goods, fruit jars, crockery and groceries.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U will be held this week Saturday, with Mrs. H. E. Stubbs.

Rev. H. E. Stubbs was elected Superintendent of the Sabbath school, last Sunday, and all who are interested in the work are requested to attend next Sunday.

The O. W. P. Townsite Co. has been reorganized. A. F. Campbell has sold his interest in the company and W. P. Keedy becomes secretary and treasurer. G. W. Morrow will be the active manager of the new firm until W. H. Hurlburt, the new president, takes the management.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones have been receiving a visit from Mr. J's mother and sister.

A. Morrow is working on the new addition to his residence. It is 16x32, two-story. This home is located in the yard where the buildings were that were the first put up on the Williams donation land claim out of which Estacada's townsite was surveyed. Quite a portion of the old orchard still remains and this year it promises to produce a good crop of fruit. The pear, plum and apple trees, and grape vines are all loaded. A wild cherry tree in the yard is also promising a good yield.
