LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Mrs. A. F. Shultz went to Oregon City, Monday.

R. A. Stratton was a business visitor to Portland, Tuesday.

Mrs. D. C. Crane has a new announcement in her ad this week.

Earl Eupperlee of Jefferson City is here on a visit to the Shultz family.

Mrs. W. H. Butler, of Coopers-town, N. D. is a guest at The News home.

Charley Bard who is now at Oaksdale, Wash. asks that The News be sent to him.

E. A. Miller and family have moved back to Springwater, into their former residing place.

Speaking of hot weather, haven't the past few days atoned for the enthusiasm of last Saturday?

Miss Etta Jones, of McMinnville, a sister of Mrs. T. Yocum, is at the latter's home for a few weeks.

Our medical fraternity has been attending the meet of the National Medical Association at Portland.

Wm. Straight has been elected chief of the city volunteer fire department in place of Wm. Jones resigned.

Miss Minnie Winegar of McMinnville arrived here last week and is visiting at her sister, Mrs. H. W. Downing's home.

The vacancy in the city council caused by B. O. Boswell's absence has been filled by the appointment of E. F. Surface.

Mrs. Edgar Heiple and Little Marie are doing nicely under the care of Dr. Covert. Their home is near Eagle Creek.

T. J. Wirtz had his family moved over from the ranch near Highland and have rented the new Miller cottage on upper Currin street where they will reside.

Mrs. B. O. Boswell is having a beautiful bay window put on their cottage; she is also having a fine apple and fruit storehouse made. John Page is doing the work.

Estacada has a garbage and domestic animal crematory, and it is quite a success, only it isn't managed on as perfect scientific basis as is the Portland crematory.

Mrs. T. J. Mathews who has been receiving medical care in Portland for some time is reported as not being much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lantz went to Gresham last Sunday and visited their people. It was their first absence from home since coming here.

It was Miss Abbie Irwin and not Miss Surface who arrived here last week from Anaconda. Miss Irwin will spend July and August with her people here.

Mrs. J. G. Brown was in Monday. She informed us that Mr. B. has been in poor health since last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have a fine farm and home one mile east of Currinsville.

An exchange tells of a retired farmer who recently promised to contribute $2 to the preacher's salary as soon as he could sell a calf, but failed to keep his word. He went to church a few nights ago and the choir sang that beautiful song, "The Half Has Never Yet Been Told." He went home in a rage of madness and told his wife that the choir had him by singing. "The calf has never yet been sold."
