Everybody knows Estacada is growing.

J. A. Smith has rented the Park hotel of C. C. Sayer.

Joe Nichelson has quit work at Cazadero—too much walking.

Some are starting to lay sidewalk in accordance with the ordinance.

Max VonNewmann is night fireman at the wood working factory.

Ladies having sewing to do can get it done by seeing Miss Gertrude Morrow at her home.

T. J. Wertz is going to build a residence on a lot belonging to H. W. Downing on Short St.

Wilbur Morrow is employed at the wood working factory as book and account keeper.

Miss Ethel Jones, whose mother died last week, is at her aunt, Mrs Knight's, east of town.

Hop picking is a healthful, pleasant and paying occupation—only it doesn't last long enough.

Ed Oblander spent last Sunday here seeing that his property was all here and in good shape.

Mrs. Edwards, a grand daughter of Mrs. F. R. Cary, out from Missouri, visited here last Sunday

Dr. Simeon Smith, of Portland, spent a part of the week out here with his son, Dr. C. S. Smith.

Mrs. Minnie Kendall, who spent the summer here with Mrs. W. A. Heylman, has returned to Spokane.

D. C. Crane was stricken with an attack of paralysis the first of the week and has been confined to his home.

James Corrigan has a team and light wagon and is buying up farm produce and taking it to Portland and selling it.

Miss Bernadotte Reed returned to Lansing, Mich., Tuesday, after a visit of ten days with her cousin, Mrs. Dr. Haviland.

Fine Cedar Shingles

I have the selling agency for firstclass mountain cedar shingles well seasoned and of the best material.—A. Morrow, Estacada, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lantz went to Salem Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives, returning Monday.

J. R. Townsend was the busiest man in town Monday, with the bakery, meat market and the shoeshop to attend to.

Elder G. P. Rich will preach in the Estacada school house Saturday evening and Sunday, September 10. Come, everybody.

Cashier Stratton of the Estacada State Bank has purchased some lots on the Boulevard, and will build a residence this fall.

Geo. J. Stratton is having a large addition and other improvements added to the property which he purchased on Zobrist St.

A number of our people took advantage of the low rates Wednesday and went to The Oaks to see "The Last Days of Pompeii."

LOST—Monday on the wagon road between Estacada and Curriusville, a Time book, belonging to L. C. Herrington. Finder, please leave book at News office.

Mrs. Nettie Grable has received her first consignment of goods for her racket store and has the goods on display in the furniture store. They consist of a nice assortment of small, fancy wares in China, glass and other goods.

Rev. Levi Johnson has discontinued religious work in Estacada. The reason for this is that there has not been enough interest shown in church work by the people. It is believed that the Christians will take up the work. And the Methodists are said to be intending to hold meetings here soon.

The dispute between Mrs. Wm. Stubbe and D. F. Warner has been settled. Surveyor Rand was over last week and surveyed the land and located lines that have been causing trouble so long. Mrs. Stubbe tells The News that the survey gives her the land in dispute consisting of a narrow strip between

On Again, Off Again

The meat market deal that was announced last week, didn't last long. Mr. Lantz had their goods all packed and ready to leave when the tide turned and the bargain between him and Messrs Townsend and Pitman was declared off by mutual consent of all concerned.

Mr. Lantz has purchased the meat market property, and they will remain now and make Estacada their permanent home.
