Again the big yellow pumpkin is receiving admiration.

Dr. C. B. Smith was at Oregon City on business, Monday.

Mrs. L. C. Possen is staying for a month out at her parents near Garfield.

Mrs. J. W. Reed and the children have returned home from The Oaks to remain.

Contractor and Builder J. W. Gunsaulis, of Portland, was in Estacada, Tuesday.

Howard Day is no longer at the Hotel Estacada, he having secured a position in town.

A physician was summoned Monday to Cazadero to fix up a man who had been kicked by a horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rich went to Portland Sunday and were sight-seers at the Fair till Monday evening.

D. Nunemaker, who is branching out as one of Portland's big contractors, was looking after his interests here Saturday.

Sidewalks are being put down in many parts of the town, and it will not be long before the business, or lower part of city will be all sidewalked.

The furniture for the new school has arrived and the fall term will be opened next Monday if every thing can be properly arranged by that date.

Dr. C. B. Smith was showing the city and its many points of interest to his wife and Mrs. C. D. Latourette, a cousin of the doctor's, from Oregon City, Tuesday. It was Mrs. Latourette's first visit here since we assumed the ways of a city, and she was very much pleased with the place.

Fine Cedar Shingles

I have the selling agency for first class mountain cedar shingles well seasoned and of the best material.--A. Morrow, Estacada, Oregon.

The water system is to be extended along Zobrist street to the brick factory.
