Allan Cooke assumed the duties of station agent in Estacada the first of the week. Mr. Cooke and Miss Ethel M. Davis of Boring were married last Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis, in Boring, Rev. H. L. St Clair of Gresham, officiating at the ceremony. A very pleasant wedding party and dinner followed the marriage. The young couple will live in Estacada as soon as a suitable home can be found. Mr. Cooke comes well recommended.

Elbert Surface of North Yakima spent last Sunday with his brother, E. F. Surface.

The flat on the North bank of the Clackamas river opposite the location for the electric power plant at Cazadero is being cleared of all the wood on it. The site is of good quality soil, and will make a fine garden patch, or a beautiful site for a city, and the people who will be employed at the various places will want a more suitable dwelling place than the old Cazadero site.

Walt Hyde who has played the role of tonsorial artist for the city during the past year sold his shop, rights and privileges to M. H. Richards. Walter hung to the willows faithfully. Just where he will pitch his teepee next, he has not decided, but his Estacada friends wish him the best of luck.

Mr. M. H. Richards who has taken the barber shop business will retain the shop where it was. Mr. Richards is an old hand at the barber business having worked at the trade for several years in the East. They wish to dispose of their restaurant business.

Vice-President and General Manager Belknap of the Estacada Brick & Tile Company is engaged with a crew of men balasting the tramway. It is expected that horse power will be used this winter to convey the clay from the beds to the factory, and an electric line may be put in next spring.
