At the council meeting, Tuesday evening, Recorder Haviland handed in his resignation, as did also E. F. Surface as councilman. Both resignations were accepted, and E. C. Belknap was elected to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Surface withdrawing from the board. A petition signed by a number of the people asking that W. A. Heylman be appointed was presented. After a couple tie ballots, the mayor cast the deciding vote for Mr. Belknap. Adjournment was then taken. At the next meeting a treasurer, recorder and probably a successor to Major Haviland, if that gentleman resigns, will be appointed.

Is of Age, Now

A most pleasing and highly successful surprise party was given on last Friday evening at the camp of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Posson in honor of Edwin Mallory, it being his 21st birthday. Mr. Mallory was detained in town, until all the guests had arrived, and when he opened the door of his home and found himself confronted by a host of friends, it was some minutes before he could comprehend what had happened. The evening was spent in music and games, the principal feature being progressive High Five. The first prize was won by Miss Mabel E. Simmons and Alvin Ballinger. The booby prize went to Miss E. Vide Dale and George Shultz. At a seasonable hour, delightful refreshments were served.

Those present were—Misses Nora E. Durrell, Linda M. Womer, Marvel F. Simmons, Iva M. Dale, Mary E. Womer, Mabel E. Simmons, E. Vida Dale, Edna Womer, Stella Womer, Neva Green, Bernice Morris; Messrs Edwin Mallory, George F. Shultz, A. Alvin Ballinger, T. E. Carrico, Smiley Lovelace, Clyde Shock, Ed. Hunt; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Posson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harramon Green, and Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Chapman, of Oregon City. At a late hour, the guests departed, and each one voted the affair one of the most delightful events of the season.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy In His House

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by the Estacada drug store.
