The cost of the approaching election to Clackamas county will be something over $3,000. But the people are going to get all their money's worth.

"Do Right" is the short but very pertinent platform of N. F. Nelson, who is an independent candidate for state senator. Evidently, Mr. Nelson does not wish to be too impertinent about the matter.

The man who does not register for the purpose of voting at the nominating primary, is he who is content with whatever someone else says he shall have to vote for. Is your neighbor one of these?

Why not have a rural free delivery route to extend from Estacada out into the Springwater-Highland-Viola country? We believe this could easily be accomplished to the great benefit and satisfaction to the people of these neighborhoods.

John Talbot, of Clackamas, was a visitor in Estacada last Saturday and Sunday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. L. Ryckman.
Mr. Talbot is a candidate for legislative honors, and has represented this district in previous assemblies. He is well known, and is thoroughly acquainted with the political situation in the county.

J. E. Hedges, the democratic candidate for state senator, intends to withdraw the first petition he filed with the county clerk, and place another on file. Mr. Hedges did not sign the statement relating to the election of a United States senator, and he wishes to go on record as favoring the man who receives the most votes from the people.

Dr. C. B. Smith, who in early days was a practicing physician in East Portland and who moved to Eastern Clackamas County when that section was sparsely settled, is a candidate for the legislature from that county. His home is Eagle Creek. He was in the legislature a few years ago, when the free silver craze was on, and Dr. Smith was an advocate of sound money when most of the members of the legislature were carried off their feet by the silver tide.—Morning Oregonian.

Statement of the primary election law is giving politicians something to cuss, and worry over. No doubt it was the intention of those who framed the law that a republican should vote for a repub-

ESTACADA

Is going to grow this coming summer more rapidly than ever before.
The great Electric Power Plant, costing over $1,000,000.00 will be completed, a large sawmill will be built, and logs will be floated down the Clackamas from miles above. The price of property should advance with the completion of enterprises now under way, and the perfection of those already in operation.

We have some choice business and residence lots in Estacada which are good investments for anyone.
Prices reasonable and terms easy.

lican and a democrat for a democrat.
Otherwise it would seem to mean that Oregon's United States senator must be elected, practically speaking, by a vote of the people, and it does not appear that we have yet arrived at this political millennium.
In all other respects, the law makes decided distinction on party lines, and why not in U. S. Senator?

Wm. J. Clarke, editor of the Gervais Star, was in town yesterday.
Mr. Clarke is a republican candidate for State Printer. If qualifications for the office for which he is seeking are of any account Mr.
Clarke should receive a majority of the peoples' votes. He has been in the printing business all his life, and his father, Samuel A. Clarke, the veteran editor and publisher, was once editor of the Salem Statesman and Willamette Farmer. Old time Oregonians will remember him.
Remember Wm. J. on election day.

Here is a pretty good one found floating around and perhaps some of you have not seen it: A man over in Sherman county, who patronizes the mail order houses allows the children to play with the big catalogues. One morning the nurse came out and told them there was a new baby in the house. "Who brought it?" asked the children.
The nurse replied that it had just come. Oh, I know, said one little tot, its a Sears Roebuck baby and bet it's adulterated just like the pepper and the strawberry jam was, and papa will have to keep it because the money was sent in advance.—Ex.

Announces His Candidacy

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY:
I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for county commissioner.

I am a resident of Harmony precinct, and by occupation a road and bridge builder, and if nominated and elected I promise to treat all parts of Clackamas county alike.

I believe that the affairs of the county should be conducted with the utmost economy.

I believe that all of our improved county roads should be kept in good repair during all seasons of the year, and any defect found in the same should be repaired as soon as discovered.

I believe in getting the county out of debt, and keeping it out, and by so doing we will be able to decrease the rate of taxation.
Respectfully Yours,
W. H. COUNSELL

James Boswell, a brother to our townsman and former alderman, had a miraculous escape from death a short time ago. He was employed as a telephone lineman in Philadelphia, and was at the top of a pole placing a wire when the wire he was handling came in contact with a high-tensioned electric wire and he received a shock of 2,000 volt power. The shock was received on the arm and inflicted a terrible burn.
Mr. Boswell rested himself on the network of wires until he was rescued, nearly dead from the injury and the cold of winter.

10 a. m. followed by a short address to the children by the pastor. Sermon at 11 a. m. by Rev. Asa Sleeth; subject, "The Preparation for a Triumphant Christian Life." The sermon will be followed by the reception of members and the organization of the church. At 6 o'clock the quarterly conference will convene, with Dr. Rowland, Presiding Elder, in the chair. At this conference there is to be elected a Board of Trustees and a Board of Stewards and a number of class leaders. The Young Peoples' meeting at 6:30 and

Great Conflagration

A Residence and the Business Portion of Cazadero Nearly Go Up In Smoke

A residence directly across from the passenger station and depot at Cazadero caught fire last evening from a defective flue, and but for the timely arrival of a bucket of water the building would have been destroyed. Estacada's fire department responded but arrived too late to do any damage.

Philosophy.

Be good and you'll be happy is true enough, I guess.
Of course, if you are scrappy You miss the happiness.

The thing looks well in theory, But really it's too bad, quite sad, That some folks seem so cheery Who are so very bad.

It really is a question, If things work as they say,
For with a good digestion They're happy anyway.

A Definition.

"All things come round to those who wait."

"Yes, things is a good name for them, for they are mostly bill collectors."

Only Sure Way.

"He hasn't lost a cent on the races this season."

"Wonderful! Has he a system?"
"Yes, he only makes mind bets."

On the Face of Things.

"She must have married him for his money."

"Why do you say so?"
"Because I have seen him."

The Business Method.

The duke was frank; he sought the bank And into records pried
To find if he should turn and flee Or make the girl his bride.

Sure Cure.

"I wish I knew something to put in my husband's coffee to break him of the habit of smoking."

"Ever try strychnine?"
