At a mass meeting Monday evening it was unanimously decided that Estacada should celebrate the 4th of July, and the following committee was named to get up and manage the celebration—Wm. F. Cary, Wm. A. Cunningham, J. R. Wilson, Wm. Jones and E. F. Surface. This committee has charge of everything, and have already appointed sub-committees to assist in making the celebration a success. E. C. Belknap, marshal of the day.
John Ely, general manager of the Lodge Parade.
Deputy Marshals, Wm. Delapp, Clark Posson, Al Havens.
Manager of Dance, Wm. Jones.
Committee on Decorations, John R. Cassidy, B. O. Boswell.
Committee on Reception, Mr. and Mrs. Heylman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewellen, Mr. and Mrs. Richards,

Mr. and Mrs. Boswell D., and Mrs. Haviland and Mr. and Mrs. Shultz.
C. F. Howe is treasurer of the funds to be used.
Plenty of money has been assured to make the celebration a grand success. The principal features of the day will be a parade, speaking, all kinds of sports, ball game, races, music by band, fireworks and big dance in the evening. A voting contest will decide what lady shall be the Goddess of Liberty. Votes are 10c each, all voting will be done at the drug store. The contest will close and the votes counted at 12 o'clock Saturday June 30 at a grand ball. A ticket to the dance entitles the purchaser to one vote for goddess. The money is to go to the 4th of July fund.
Come and hear the American Eagle scream, all day and nearly all night.
