JULY 5, 1906

And even Maud had to put her tail in cold storage for getting too frolicsome on the Fourth.

Just one little illustration on what the building of the O. W. P. railroad into this country has done for some individuals. John Zobrist, who owns a farm adjoining Estaca-da, sold a portion of the timber on it a short time ago for more than $4,000. That is more than the farm cost in the first place. Mr. Zobrist still has his farm, a part of which is platted into city lots.

The present national congress has adjourned and gone home. It's record for work puts an insignificant hue on the records of most congresses preceding it. The blame for having done things is laid at the throne of Theodore Roosevelt. He did not accomplish all that he wanted to, but he did more than any ordinary statesman could have done under the circumstances. The President did no more than any other individual should have done, in the presidency, who wanted the people's will to be done.

It has been decided that the City can not purchase a site for and conduct a public cemetery. There is but one thing about it: Estacada must have a public cemetery. Several available and convenient sites have been offered, and of these one should be secured. The prices asked are not unreasonable. Why do not some of the fraternal lodges take this matter up and establish a cemetery? It would certainly become a paying investment. And if this is impracticable, someone owning land near by should open up a lot for cemetery purposes. The grounds should be within easy walking distance of town, and be convenient of access.

Most Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacture of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
 They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by the Estacada Drug Store.

ESTACADA

Is going to grow this coming summer more rapidly than ever before.
 The great Electric Power Plant, costing over $1,000,000.00 will be completed, a large sawmill will be built, and logs will be floated down the Clackamas from miles above. The price of property should advance with the completion of enterprises now under way, and the perfection of those already in operation.

We have some choice business and residence lots in Estacada which are good investments for anyone.
 Prices reasonable and terms easy.

A Large Turkey Egg
 A turkey belonging to J. A. Reid across the river laid an egg one day last week of rather prodigious size.
 It measured four inches in length, and two inches in diameter. It hid within it another egg of ordinary size with shell and all apparently perfect. This turkey has certainly caught the Oregon idea.

Dudley Boyles, who has been deputy sheriff in the office of Sheriff Harry Trembeth, has filed with the county court, the following notice of resignation:
 "To the Honorable Court, Clackamas county: As you have been so very unkind as to stop my pay as deputy sheriff, I hereby tender my resignation as such officer, and you can get along just the best you can without me. Yours without malice —D. C. Boyles.

Mr. Boyles has gone to Molalla's hot springs for rheumatism.
 Congressman Morrell recently advertised for a stableman and specified that all applications should be "by mail." Mr. Morrell was just out of bed next morning when he was informed that there was a man waiting who insisted on seeing him.
 "Did you advertise for a man?" was the first thing said to Mr. Morrell as he came down.
 "I did," he said. "But I distinctly said that all applications must be by mail."
 "Yes sir," answered the man. "I am a male and I'm applying now." —Pittsburg Dispatch.

Just a fair sized crowd attended the ball given by the 4th celebration committee in the park pavilion last Sunday evening. Those who were there seemed to enjoy themselves.
 The goddess of liberty voting contest which was conducted in the hall added interest to the evening. At the close of voting the two principal contestants were Miss Linda May Womer with 576 votes, and Miss Ava Lovelace with 421. The contest was spirited toward the close of the hour of voting. One ballot for 200 votes was cast at the last minute for Miss Womer, and this raised the question whether the ballot was entitled to be counted. It was decided by the committee that the ballot should be counted, and the voting continued until 10 o'clock Monday evening.

A Helpful Superstition.
 "Does he plant his potatoes in the fork of the moon?"
 "No; that is when he steals them."

Not For His.
 "Will the coming man smoke?"
 "It is pretty safe to bet he will, but less he is a woman."

Know Their Value.
 "Doesn't he ever bet on the races?"
 "No; he just sells sure tips."

ONE THING NEW.
 Say, is it true there's nothing new Or strange or startling under The big round sun? Is there not one Thing we may call a wonder, Or may we not from some dark spot A brand new secret plunder?

If there is not a single hot, Original creation
 As rare as diamonds large in this Or any other nation, Yet here and there at times we scare Up quite an imitation.

Back in the vast and moldy past They may have had the tinkle And silver tones of L'Epiphonie And the electric tinkle, The phonograph to make them laugh And every other wrinkle.

How should I know it is not as "Hot people not kneecaps double While walking out to look about And bending not for trouble.
 Stool on their head for some great red, Pierce automobilebullet?

Ah, well, perhaps those ancient chaps May not have been so simple, And every day may not have had A head quite like a pimple.
 But I can swear that nothing's ever Come I match my lady's dimple.

Return of the Hoop Skirt.
 Leaders of fashion deriving from the misty past have dug up the hoop skirts and are delighted with the find. In their haughty and arbitrary way they have decreed that lovely woman shall don the bird cage, as of yore, and so sailing down the street demanding two-thirds of the sidewalk for her promenade.
 We shall see whether the new and improved woman, with all of the modern attachments, will submit as gracefully as did her sister of thirty years ago, or whether she will rise up and tell the fashion leaders that it is to late in the history of the world for man to put a barb wire fence around her.
 Meanwhile the expectant gnat will stand around in the back lot and await the decision, for it is a long time since he has had anything as delectable as the hoop skirt lunch, and the humble hummer will dig into the flies and resurrect the stock joke of the last generation and make it dig one more stunt.

VISION
 It isn't raining rain to me;
 It's raining daffodils.
 In every dimpled drop I see Wild flowers on the distant hill Clouds of gray engulf the day, And overwhelm the town.
 It isn't raining rain to me—It's raining roses down.

It isn't raining rain to me,
 But fields of clover bloom, Where any buccaneering bee May find a bed and room.

A health unto the happy, A fig for him who frets.
 It isn't raining rain to me,
 It's raining violets.
