Chas. Ballard, editor of the Milwaukie Bee has decided that it is necessary to have his left eye removed and will undergo an operation in Portland this week. He has suffered for the past five years with an irritation of that eye, which has continued to grow worse until the right eye is being affected. It became evident that the sight of the left eye would be destroyed, and with the prospects in view of also losing the right one, he decided an operation was necessary.

The fad of having but one set way to spell words has always been a stumbling block to our success as a great speller, and if there is going to be any reform adopted we suggest that the rules be suspended and each one spell as the spirit moves him.

Miss Ida Harkenrider is expected home this week from Portland, and will leave later with her brother, George, for Southern Oregon on account of the latter's health. Miss H. has been in the employ of the Meier & Frank Co. for several years.

As the section crew were returning home from work last Saturday evening their car left the track near Eagle Creek, and together with its occupants cut some very antique figures in the air. The foreman was severely hurt, and others of the crew were slightly touched.

John Zobrist returned from Ballard last week. He spent a week in the city by the Sound, but took sick and returned home. Mr. Zobrist remembers well when, a few years ago, he helped to build the first shack in what is now Ballard, a city of about 15,000 population.

It is presumed that many of our people are calling "hop pole" in a few of the hop fields up the valley. Among those who have gone to assist in saving the beer brewing buds are, Al Havens and family, Mrs. Ed. Miller and Edna, Mrs. Groff and Mary, Ava Lovelace, and Mr. Charley Bronson and family.

A Good Old Picnic Time

Those who attended the picnic of last Saturday given by the Garfield grange at Mount Zion grove will ever remember the day as one of the most pleasant of their lives. Early in the day people began to gather from all directions, and by the time set for the program to begin more than 200 grangers and friends had gathered in the beautiful fir grove. It was cool in the tall trees, but by noon it began to warm up. Each of those who participated in the program deserve special mention, but it is inconvenient for us to dwell too long on the subject. All enjoyed the program throughout. The several parts and pieces were well rendered, and the whole was well carried out. At the dinner hour all gathered at a spacious table which seemed to reach from one farm to another, and which was spread with good things from the kitchens of the grange homes and orchards. How thankful everyone present should have felt toward the ladies for providing such a splendid dinner! Someone did a lot of work for the enjoyment of others, and they are to be thanked for it. The grange is certainly a fine means towards promoting social intercourse among a people, and to advance their material interests as well. The picnic was a success.

Governor Chamberlain while addressing the Boise convention the other day told the following story: "While coming into Boise on the train," said he, "I met a Swede and we fell into conversation. I asked him if he knew Governor Gooding. "Yaas" he drawled. "I tink I know Gooding. He pretty gude feller."

"Do you know Stockslager, the Democratic candidate for governor?" I asked. "Yaas" he replied, "I tink I know Stockslager. He pretty gude feller. "Well, who do you think has the best show?" asked the governor. "Well" answered the Swede, "I tink Ringling Bros. has the best show."

E. Ridgeway, who owns a farm in the renowned Springwater country, has carried away the laurels this year for the highest yield of wheat. He had a field that went over 51 bushels an acre.

J. W. Reed has filed an attachment suit in the circuit court to recover $115 of T. A. Miller. $70 of this is for merchandise, and the balance is on an assigned claim from T. Vocum. Dimick & Dimick are

Change in Management of Prominent Clothing Store Business

The large general clothing store business of A. F. Shultz & Sons has passed into the management of the junior members of the firm, Jordan and George Shultz. The change took place Tuesday. It is the intention of the new management to add largely to the present stock of shoes, furnishings etc. and to close out as fast as possible the immense stock of clothing now carried, and no doubt the boys will enjoy a liberal share of the public's patronage. Their ad. announcement will appear next week.

Shibley-Mulkey.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mulkey, on North Myrtle, Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, when Rev. W. N. Lyon, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, united in bonds of matrimony their youngest daughter, Mazelle Mulkey and Mr. Earl Shibley, of Springwater, Oregon. The bride looked very charming in a gown of white silk with chiffon trimmings. The groom wore a neat, dark business suit. The bridesmaids were Miss Sadie Humphreys of this place and Miss Inez Depew of Baker City. The groomsmen were T. R. Dunning and F. C. Mulkey. Congratulations, bouquet throwing and cake cutting in search of hidden ring followed the wedding ceremony.

The groom is one of Clackamas county's sterling young men; a carpenter by occupation. The bride is an estimable young woman. She is one of our public school instructors of marked ability and is admired by all who know her for her many splendid qualities. The newly married couple departed on the night train for their future home at Springwater, Oregon, followed by the best wishes of many warm friends, not least of whom is the editor of the MAIL.—Myrtle Creek Mail.

Mr. and Mrs. Shibley returned to Springwater last week. Their numerous friends here are pleased with this happy match, and hearty wishes for a happy life are extended to the young people. Congratulations are due Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mulkey and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shibley.

The employees at the brick factory are fitting up a fine bath tub in the engine room, and when it is completed everyone of them swears he is going to take a bath. Even the general manager is thinking seriously of doing so too.
