A Pleasant Evening

One of the most enjoyable evenings spent at Estacada was the L. O. T. M. Social given at Fir Lodge, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heylman. The cordiality which was extended to all, who were lucky enough to be present, by the host and hostess, made the evening start with the brightest prospects.

Games were then played, such as selling kisses, pinning clothes pins on the line, and guessing the number of seeds in a pumpkin. In the seed game Mrs. Posson and Mr. Curran won, the first an opera bag, and the second a pipe. Mary Womer and Sim Smith won in the clothes-pin game and the prizes were an apron and a necktie. The refreshments served in the beautiful diningroom, by the ladies of Fern Hive, closed the evening of sport and everyone departed with a good night saying, it takes the Maccabees to succeed.

Twenty five dollars was cleared on the occasion. Mrs. Nina Downey of Portland Hive was the guest of honor. Mrs. Sadie Gumm won the beautiful centerpiece.

D. F. Warner returned home yesterday from Washington where he has been several weeks buying hides and getting rich. On one shipment Mr. Warner sent out from Idaho the freight was over $200. He sent out a big shipment from Estacada yesterday.
