O. H. Schock and M. E. Simmons spent Sunday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Portland were guests at Orchard Home last Sunday.

Attorney Heylman visited Portland and Oregon City Tuesday, on legal business.

John Stormer and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller Sunday.

Contractor Lindsey has already begun work on the grade on Main Street leading up to the heights and the road will be closed to travel till the work is completed.

The News acknowledges a call from Rev. McPherson who arrived yesterday and will be located here. He will preach at Zion, Dover, and Estacada. Mr. McPherson's family will arrive in about three weeks.

The Dubois sawdust case was heard again, Tuesday, before Justice Stipp. Members of the jury came over from Oregon City, yesterday to inspect the stream and the concluding arguments were submitted late in the afternoon on their return.

B. W. Read and A. Duprey are working on the government's irrigation works at Klamath Falls and are getting $2.25 a day and board, eight hours a day. But they earn it, and the water they drink. Their wives are living on the timber claims 35 miles out from Medford in the dense, fir forests. These pleasant times will soon be over, and they'll all return to Estacada and enjoy life.

An Awful Cough Cured

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by the Estacada drug store.
