The Cary Hardware Company

The Estacada State Bank

Is gaining strength every day. The books show an increase in deposits and general business for each day since its transfer to the new owners. The increase in capital stock to $20,000, fully paid up has met with the approval of the citizens of Estacada and vicinity as shown by their liberal deposits. Mr. George Estes, the new president, is well known in banking circles and throughout the state, having been connected officially with the Portland Trust Co. and is now manager of the bond department of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank and Sec. of the Bank of Drain.
