NEW MANAGEMENT Golden Eagle Hotel & Restaurant

Louis Martin, who recently took the Andre building at the corner of Broadway and Second Street has made a new hotel of the place. The place will hereafter be known as the Golden Eagle Hotel and Restaurant. Every room in the house has been made comfortable and pleasant for guests, which has cost an outlay of several hundred dollars. The table fare is always the best to be had, and every effort is made to make guests feel at home and pleased. Mr. Martin is running a clean, up-to-date hotel, and is gaining the confidence of the people.

Hogs of Good Weight

When it comes to raising heavy fat hogs, E. Ridgeway wins in the race around here. A week ago he butchered one of his fat swine that dressed 452 pounds. A week or so before that he killed a fat pig that dressed 326 pounds. These are the kind of hogs which it pays to raise, because if there's a mortgage on the place it will fade away.
