Pure Blood IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS

This great medicine cures those eruptions, pimples and boils that appear at all seasons; cures scrofula sores, salt rheum or eczema; adapts itself equally well to, and also cures, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles; cures rheumatism and catarrh; cures nervous troubles, debility and that tired feeling.

Sarsatabs—For those who prefer medicine in tab-let form, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now put up in choco-lated tablets called Sarsatabs, as well as in the usual liquid form. Sarsatabs have identically the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides accu-racy of dose, convenience, economy,—no loss by evap-oration, breakage, or leakage. Druggists or promptly by mail. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Harmonious Relations.
The Marquis del Grillo, the first usband of the great Italian actress, Ristori, had as personal valets only the most quick-witted young fellows who could help him in the practical jokes in which his eccentric soul de lighted.

In one instance, says a writer in the New York Times, the marquis was sitting at a piano, trying some church ered in. He did not stop playing, or even glance round, but began to ask questions. The answers evidently did not appeal to him, for he suddenly struck a loud chord and, following the tune of the music, chanted in a heavy

"You will not do for me." Then he rose, and without a look at the man started to walk out of the room. The applicant quickly stepped to the piano, and striking the keys with both fists, chanted back solemnly in the same air:

"I'm very glad of it, because I don't like you a bit!" Anyone else would have had the man thrown out for his impudence, but the
