Spark's Store

Gleaned By the Wayside

Mr. and Mrs. T. Vocum have been called to Yamhill county where the latter's mother is dangerously ill.

R. C. Herring has been digging some fine potatoes. The spuds have been in the ground all winter and part of the field was covered with water a great part of the winter, but in spite of that the potatoes look fine and, Mr. Herring says, taste fine.

R. G. Palmtree and Henry Epperson are getting out and distributing telephone poles for the line-to-be.

Earl and James Palmtree from California are visiting at L. J. Palmtree's at Garfield.

J. J. Davis, Millard Sarver, and Earl Palmtree contemplate going into the mountains to hunt bear.

F. H. Davis is proud these days, even if his every day hat is gone. Last Sunday morning a fine 10 1/2 lb boy made his entrance into the home and the whole family are happy. Mrs. Davis and the son are doing well.

J. J. Honebon and Ballard Looney had some fences burn last week and it took some fighting to keep the fire from doing greater damage.

Dr. Charlton has come up from Portland and is visiting with Mrs. C. B. Rawlins.

John Linn and his daughter Jennie have arrived from Illinois. The former intends to go up to the mill soon and the latter is staying at Currinsville at the G. B. Linn home.

*Mrs. J. F. Schneider died last Saturday night of heart disease and was buried Monday afternoon at Zion Cemetery. Her death was very sudden. The three sons, who work away from home, had come home to spend the Sunday and the family spent a happy evening together. When retiring for the night Mrs. Schneider felt unusually well; in the morning she was found dead in bed. Mr. Schneider had only lately bought the LaBrecque farm near Linn's mill and, full of hope, the family had moved from Oregon City into the new home.

Mrs. Schneider leaves a father, a husband, three sons and a daughter. She was 45 years old at the time of her death, and beloved by all who knew her. She and the family were formerly residents of Lane county. (Oregon City and Lane County papers please copy.)

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. During the 3d of a century in which it has been in use people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.
