The farmers in the Lemon neighborhood have been doing some very good work on their road there. The bridge which they put over the creek is much appreciated by those who have to travel there.

Mrs. T. Yocum has returned from McMinnville where she has been at the bedside of her mother who is ill. The patient is reported to be improving.

That coyote came very near getting one of Mrs. Porter's chickens. He failed, but judging by the quantity of feathers the hen left behind he meant business.

The J. J. Davis hunting party has returned and report some success.

Walter Shriner has moved his family to Boring where he is employed in the Davis' sawmill.

John Linn and daughter Jennie have gone up to the mill; some men are doing preparatory work, and soon the mill will be turning out some more of that fine lumber for which the Linn Brothers' mill is justly known.

Our terms are easy. If you take sick and can not meet your payments we will carry them for you. Estacada State Bank.

Sheriff's Record

Out of a tax roll that totaled $238,752.88, there remains uncollected and delinquent only about $5,000. Sheriff Beatie said this morning that there was not nearly so many half payments as last year, as more people than usual paid the whole amount of their tax in order to obtain the three per cent rebate. The record of the sheriff's office is gratifying both to the officials and the tax payers of Clackamas County.—Oregon City Courier.
