The League

The Epworth League gathered at their room in the church Tuesday evening for the weekly business and social meeting. A large number of young people attended, and an organization was perfected with 35 members. The officers for the first quarter are: Mrs. Chas. T. McPherson, Pres.; Mrs. Rosa Reagan, 1st Vice in charge of Spiritual Dept.; F. M. Gill, 2nd Vice in charge of Dept. of World Evangelism; Mrs. W. S. Irwin, 3d Vice in charge of the Mercy and Help Dept.; Edna Miller, 4th Vice in charge of the literary and social work; Mary Dale secretary and librarian, and Zoa Irwin, treasurer. After the business meeting, the committee, Misses Womer, Morrow and Miller assumed charge. Wm. Dale and Stella Womer recited and Mrs. McPherson sang. Amusement was had from guessing advertisements, and from the game of "Conversation." Strawberries and wafers were served as refreshments for a delightful evening. F. M. Gill, Clyde Schock, Neil Bronson and Ed Hogan are the committee for next week.

An Observation

The last number of the Pacific Christian Advocate while speaking of the Estacada church work says: "Less than a year ago Estacada was little more than a mere prospect, with less than a dozen members and no church nor parsonage, but Brother McPherson, immediately after his appointment began a systematic canvass for funds and in a very short time work was commenced on the church building and now we have a beautiful church with a seating capacity of 500, situated on the brow of the hill, an ideal location, lots and work began on a parsonage, the membership increased 200 per cent. and the largest list of subscribers to the Pacific Christian Advocate in the East Portland district and the second largest in the Oregon conference."

Miss Mary E. Womer was one of class which graduated from the Portland High school last week. She was one of the class in English. Miss Linda and Miss Stella Womer visited Portland last week, and attended the graduation exercises of the high school classes.
