He was, by special contract with his publishers, Attorneys, Counselors at Law made the retail price low down with the view to putting it within easy reach of every reader and book buyer

The book gives his experienceswhat he saw and did-whom he met and his impressions and conclusions He made a profound study of men and things as he saw them on this noted journey around the world. He gives governmental, educational religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in all the people of the earth. While Col. Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with prestage of having made two memorable contests for the presidency of United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of Am-Livery, Feed & Sale erican affairs. He was given opportunity for observations never before accorded any one traveling in private capacity. It one wants to see the world and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well asthe masses, he has in this book an opportunity of seeing them thru the eyes of Col. William Jennings Bryanother column of this issue.
