The band boys meet every week in Fraternity hall for practice. At present there are only seven of eight in the band, but more will take up the work later. Cashier Bellfills of the Estacada State Bank is acting as instructor, and the boys have already got a good start in the practice work.

Reception to Rev. Paroungian and Family

The Methodist Episcopal church was the scene last Friday evening of quite a gathering of people from here, Currinsville and Zion who met at a reception given to welcome the new pastor, Rev. M. B. Paroungian, and his wife and children to their new home. The evening was spent by the people and their pastor and family getting acquainted with each other. Refreshments were served in the League room following which short talks were given by Rev. Paroungian, Mr. Demoy and others. At the close of the evening the pastor and his wife were tendered a little surprise in the form of a gift consisting of various packages and parcels which in many cases exceeded the 16 oz. they were supposed to weigh.

Quincy. Sprains and Swellings Cured
"In November, 1901, I caught cold & had the quincy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's pain balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right." says Mrs. L. Cousine of Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's pain balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Estacada Drug Store.
