The Republican national convention to nominate candidates for the presidency and vice-presidency will meet in Chicago on June 16, next.

Should President Roosevelt accept a renomination, Mr. Bryan's only hopes of ever becoming president is for him to wait four years more before running.

The pleasures of driving on the ocean beach were interrupted Monday when the Marshfield stage with 14 passengers was early swept into the sea by a big tidal wave.

During the past few weeks there has been a practical demonstration of the truth of the economic expression—cheap money will always drive dear money out of circulation. It would take a long time to root out the idea that gold is the real thing when it comes to money.

Monongah, Pa., which was the scene of the terrible and destructive mine explosion of last week, was the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Scott, who just recently moved here from there.

PRINEVILLE REVIEW

The Review would like to have all this profitless newspaper discussion over the alleged "failure of the gold standard" cease at once. It does no good, and can only tend to inflame prejudice in youthful minds which have not yet learned their lessons in the hard school of experience, against our financial institutions.

Also private money to loan on terms and in amounts to suit borrower. Certificates of deposit on Oregon City Banks taken in exchange for first lien real estate mortgages.

If you wish a large number of healthy pigs next Spring, don't feed the brood sows with the fattening hogs. The bone and muscle feed that the cows are getting would suit their needs better.

No farmer was ever known to make money by scrimping feed for his animals, manure or feed for the field, measure for the market—anything. Give a plenty, but no waste is a rule that will work out to a good end.

The old, well-tried cure for a horse that pulls back is to use a small rope, pass through the bit rings and rings on saddle, and fasten to a strong crupper or pass it under the tail. When the horse pulls back the pull comes strongest under the tail.

When to Go Home

From the Bluffton, Ind. Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home, and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household."
