JANUARY 2, 1908

Senator Fulton of Oregon sauntered into the House chamber where several members were addressing copies of the Secretary of Agriculture's report to their constituents this afternoon.

"I am looking for my brother," he remarked, "Mr. Fulton of Oklahoma."

"Why, he is a Democrat," said Representative Clayton of Alabama. "So he is, poor fellow," answered Fulton. "There was a time when he was even a better republican than I am. So ardent was he that he pressed the limit on legal age and voted for Blaine. But he settled in Nebraska for a while and is one of the small and select company that has been wearing a crown of thorns and feeling sore from the effects of his crucifixion on a cross of gold ever since.—N. Y. World.

A few examples of what can be produced in the Garfield country east of Estacada:

Walter Snuffin raised $260 worth of strawberries to the acre on common soil without fertilizers.

Sweet Burley tobacco grown by J. P. Irvin produced leaves 3 feet long and 3 feet broad.

And four rows of Kentucky Wonder pole string beans 240 feet long, on fertilized soil, produced 2,000 pounds of beans, some of the pods over 12 inches long.

Common soil, without fertilizer, produces 200 bushels of potatoes to the acre.

Prune trees 12 years old produce an average of a bushel box of dried fruit to the tree, over the 70 acres in this vicinity.

Ten year old apple trees produce 10 boxes of apples to the tree.

Resolutions of Respect

Resolutions of respect and sympathy adopted Dec. 27, 1907, by Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F. on the death of Sister Florence Duncan.

WHEREAS: We, as a lodge, have been called upon to mourn the departure to a higher life of our beloved sister whom we found ready and a willing worker in our lodge; always quick to respond to the call of duty. We will miss her helping hands and kindly presence.

RESOLVED: That in her untimely death we are again reminded of the uncertainty of life and of the duty to watch for we know not the day in which the Son of Man will come.

RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be given the family of the deceased, and to The Estacada News for publication, and that the same be spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

"Say not her work is done; No deeds of love or goodness ever dies.

But in the lives of others multiplies, 'Tis it just begun."

Albert L. Cole

Albert L. Cole died in Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, Tuesday from injuries received in an accident in Roseburg on Monday. Mr. Cole was employed as brakeman on the Portland-Roseburg passenger, and when injured was assisting in getting his train ready for the run. It was yet dark, and the train was in switch yards. Mr. Cole stepped out from the rear end of his own car, and a switch engine with no lights on the back end backed down on him, knocked him down, run over the left arm, and inflicted other serious injuries. Albert L. Cole was well known in Estacada where he had many friends, and where two of his wife's sisters reside. A widow and four children mourn the loss of a kind father and a true and devoted husband. He was 31 years old, and a Mason. The remains were taken to Scio, today, and will be laid to rest in the cemetery there on Saturday. Services to be under the direction of the Masons and his former fellow trainmen. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole, parents of the deceased, reside at Scio.

Firemen's Masquerade

The masquerade ball given by the E. V. F. Co. last night was attended by a large crowd, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. The receipts amounted to $75. A more complete report next week.

SOLUTION TO ROPE PROBLEM

Let x equal length of rope
Let y " " of 1st piece
1st equation x plus y equals 56
2d " 2-3y plus y equals 1/2x:
—x plus 10-3y equals 0
x minus y equals 56

7-3 equals 56 equals 24y
Length of 1st piece, 24 ft.
" of 2d " 16 ft.
" of rope 80 ft.
—J. R. Townsend.

Vote a Five Mill Levy

Saturday afternoon the legal voters of Garfield road district voted a five mill tax levy by a vote 23 to 18. The revenue from this is to be used on the district's roads as follows:—35 per cent. in the Tracy neighborhood; 30 per cent. on the main road and 35 per cent. in the Wagner neighborhood.

At the regular meeting last Saturday Garfield Grange elected L. J. Palmateer, master; Mrs. E. J. Yocum, overseer; F. M. Gill, lecturer; Floyd Holder, steward; Herman Davis, assistant steward; W. H. Holder, secretary; Mrs. Nor Looney, treasurer; Ralph Lemon, gate keeper; Mrs. Ida Palmateer, L. A. S.; Grace Davis, Ceres; Rachel Davis, Pomona, and Inez Krigbaum, Flora.

The grange paid its obligation and is now free from debt. It has property valued at $1,200 and 62 members in good standing.

The following is a solution of Mr. Seymour's problem:

If 2-3 of the longer piece equals the shorter, and the sum of the longer and the shorter piece subtracted from the whole rope is 1/2 of the rope, then 3-3 of the longer plus 2-3 of the longer, or 5-3 of the longer must equal 1/2 of the rope. Since 5-3 of the longer piece equals 1/2 of the rope, 2 times 5-3, or 10-3 of the longer piece equals the whole rope. By a condition of the problem when the longer piece was taken off 56ft. was left. 10-3 less 3-3 or 7-3 of the longer equals 56 feet. 1-3 of the longer is 1-7 of 56, or 8. 3-3 is 3 times 8, or 24ft. The longer piece 10-3 equals 10 times 8, or 80 to the length of the rope. 2-3 of the longer is 16 ft. the shorter piece.

Proof—16 plus 24 equals 40. 40 is 1/2 of 80.

When to Go Home

From the Bluffton, Ind. Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home, and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's cough remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by the Estacada drug store.

Answer to Problem in Finance

A paid C's debt of $2.25 to D with the $10 clearing house certificate, and received in change $7.75 or all the money D had. A paid C 25c and B $1. At the close of the transaction A had $7.75 in money; B had $1; C, 25c and D the $10 certificate, and all debts were paid. Had it not been for D's confidence in clearing house certificates the debts could not have been paid. But why was it necessary for A to have $1.25 in addition to the certificate at the beginning? Oh yes! That's the prize for the correct solution.—J. E. Stubbs.

Americans Are Governed by Convention.

By Princess TROUBETSKOY (Amelie Rives), Novelist.

WE Americans are fearless, but are we fearless enough? Aren't we afraid of SOMETHING after all? Are we not afraid of ourselves, of each other? How few of us dare to live out our primitive instincts, to test the TRUE IDEALS of life. It seems to me that to find the supreme laws, the big statutes of the moral code—that is to say, the spiritual order of our lives—we must test the VALIDITY OF CONVENTIONS. As a matter of fact we are actually afraid of being without them, we cling to them like life belts in the big sea of experience, instead of striking out and learning to swim FOR OURSELVES, to make our bodies work for the spirit.

These supreme laws are courage, faith in the great spirit that can do no evil, endurance to suffer, realizing that the light of the spirit is discovered only when it is most needed, IN DARKNESS. It is very sad that we must suffer so much to arrive at spiritual knowledge, but it does not last. We must not evade any shadow of experience, even the vague panic of the senses, for when we are confronted with awe of something we do not understand it leaves us in a RICHER STATE OF KNOWLEDGE.

Sincerity is one of the principles of poetry. It is one of the great laws that OVERSHADOW THE CONVENTIONS. We have tenderness in our poetry, national pride, abstract philosophy, but we seem to be afraid of saying boldly, of seeing vividly, of defying the primitive instinct to disgrace the supreme spiritual purpose of our being.

Temptation is excused sometimes on the ground of heredity, whereas it is an INITIAL INGREDIENT of human nature. As a friend of mine said, expressing this idea of conventional hindrances to actual experience, "We all want a smattering of knowledge, we are all peeping on the sly at this, that and the other, trying to get a view of the REAL INWARDNESS of things, and after all perhaps it is better to look through these peepholes and see what we can than to see nothing at all."

The poet sees more than others, but there is a great deal in the MOTIVE that is behind the seeing. People regard God as a great, intangible power, as children look into a great deep well, with the awe of child wonder and mystery. They read in the Bible, "God is a consuming fire," and they SHRINK IN FEAR.

TO ME THAT IS A MAGNIFICENT SPIRITUAL SYMBOL. IT IS THE WARMTH AND LIGHT AND LOVE AND PITY OF EVERY HUMAN SPIRIT.
