In addition to a few matter of fact news statements the item said that Dr. Haviland had been elected mayor of Estacada for a second term. The doctor was first elected mayor last June and was serv- these. Orders filled promptly ing his first term. His removal to Portland necessitated a change in the office. The council, after due deliberation, elected W. A. Heylman to fill the vacancy, believing him to be in full sympathy with the retiring mayor's administrative policy-whatever that may be. The statement that the growth of the place and many public improvements were largely due to the efforts of the retiring mayor, is largely true; yet the council and public had something to do with these things. Since last June's election the public improvements which have taken place in the city are:

The grading of Main, Broadway, Fourth and Third streets, and a better dra nage system for these streets.

The placing of an 8-foot plank driveway on Main, Fourth, Broadway, Third streets, and from the Dubois plank driveway to the railroad crossing on Broadway.

The installation of a gravity water supply system by which the city gets its water supply at a very low cost. Work on this had been begun by the previous council.

ever arisen in the world where a so called reform was proposed which would injure the man who proposed it.

We seem now to have subjugated or at least to have set aside our OLD TIME RULES OF LAW AND REASON AND JUSTICE and to have summoned to our seats of power the baser attributes more easily aroused, but harder to subdue.

The policeman never had so little authority in a crowd as he has today. Our courts of law, the most complete development of civilized society, a shield to the lowly, a check to the proud, are viewed with gradually DIMINISHING RESPECT AND FEAR by those who without the courts would be a menace to the state.

And this spirit is often fostered and encouraged by those who are chosen and SWORN to administer the laws.

THE IDEAS NOW MOST POPULAR ARE ALSO MOST DANGER-OUS.
