LOCAL NEWS

February 6, 1908 is passing.

Miss Mary Womer has been in Portland the past two days.

Mrs. C. S. Allen is again well enough to get out among friends.

Fred Lantz, who is now a resident of Gresham, was up here Monday.

Miss Maggie Smith, of Eagle Creek, is convalescing from a long sickness.

The notice of application of Otto Stuben for a retail liquor license appears in this issue.

A boy was born on Tuesday 28, to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Petty, living on the Warner place.

The people about town are being pestered by a number of black hogs that don't seem to have an owner. P. S.—They are of the four-footed, swine variety.

F. M. Gill and J. J. Davis have both been supplied with registration blanks and are prepared to register those who want to vote at the primaries April 17.

The Estacada schools have recently received a new lot of books from the state school library department to be added to the school's public library. We will give a list of the books next week.

Rev. Pitts, presiding elder of the Free Methodist church of this district, was here last Sunday and conducted services in the church. He also assisted Rev. Paroungian in the Sunday evening's revival meeting.

Geo. Estes, who is now president of the Estacada State Bank, will be cashier after the reorganization of the bank. Mr. Estes will take up his residence here as soon as the new officers are elected, which will be very soon.

Mrs. A. Drill and Mr. and Mrs. O. James of Faraday attended the meetings here Tuesday evening.

Dr. J. V. Scott, dentist, will be in his office in Estacada from 1 o'clock Saturdays until 5:30 p. m. Sundays. See the change in his professional ad.

William Rhodes returned home last week after a week up at George Oglesby's near Aurora, where he had a fine time. Mr. Rhodes is again busy in his blacksmith shop at his home on Eagle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wade of Olex have been over here on a visit to relatives and old friends. This is their old home diggings. Mrs. Wade is a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Palmateer, and Mr. Wade is a son of Mr. W. H. Wade. They are both well pleased with Eastern Oregon, though Clackamas still holds a warm place in their affections.

Mr. E. L. Fraley, cashier of the Estacada State Bank, and who has been with that institution since it's purchase last Spring by the present owners, has taken a position with a Portland bank. As soon as the Estacada bank reorganizes, Mr. Fraley will take up his work with the Portland bank. Further particulars are withheld at present for obvious reasons.

Merchant E. E. Elliott of Eagle Creek was in Estacada last Saturday to attend a conference of the local telephone people. Mr. Elliott has the local telephone exchange in his store, and is interested in having the system extended and improved. The new rural line which is building out into the "Douglas" settlement will be a part of the local system, and will have free exchange with Estacada the same as though the line were connected direct with us. Mr. Elliott expects other lines to be built out from Eagle Creek the coming summer.

John Bates is over from Wheeler county.

Snowballing was a popular sport Monday among all ages of the people. This kind of amusement does not come to us often here

A SPECIAL SERMON

Parents and guardians of children are especially invited by the pastor of the M. E. church to come to the 11 o'clock services next Sunday. The sermon will be devoted wholly to the benefit of the person who has others younger than himself to look after. The regular preaching will take place in the evening, and everyone will please attend. Interest in religious sentiment is increasing, and the revivals led by Rev. M. B. Paroungian are bearing fruit, several new members have already identified themselves with the church. The meetings will continue indefinitely.

ROLLS OF HONOR

The following named pupils in the primary department of the city school were neither absent nor tardy during the last term:—

Josie Harkenrider
Jessie Stormer
Ernest Stormer
Ella Lockerby
Minerva Page

Pupils who received 90% in all their examinations:—

Percy Bletch
Melba Webster
Emma Barr
Berenice Morris
Jessie Stormer
Clyde Denny
Mary Barr

QUARTERLY SERVICES

On Tuesday, February 11, at 10 o'clock a. m., Rev. Dr. Rowland, Presiding Elder of the Salem Conference district of the M. E. church will be here to assist in quarterly conference services in the Estacada church. All the different charges in Rev. M. B. Paroungian's vinyard will be present and join in the services.

The City Council Meets and the New Mayor Takes the Easy Chair

Several questions of more or less importance were discussed at Tuesday evening's meeting of the council. W. A. Heylman took a seat in the mayor's chair. A few small bills were paid, and the report of City Treasurer Cooper was approved. A discussion was had regarding the Sunday saloon observance, and the hours at which the saloons are closing at night. It appears that some complaints have been made about these things. It was also intimated that an ordinance should be passed providing for the licensing of the roller skating rink. The clerk was asked to look up the records on the subject. The meeting was held in the back rooms of the Bank of Estacada. Mr. Heylman took the oath of office as mayor of Estacada before Senator J. E. Hedges at Oregon City.

School Social and Entertainment

The primary department of the Estacada school will give a literary and musical entertainment in Fraternity Hall on the evening of Valentine Day. Following the program, baskets of dinner will be sold at a stipulated price. The money made from this entertainment is to be used by the teacher to purchase working utensils for the primary room. The teacher and pupils have been preparing the program for some time.
