The new residence that Eb Lacey a Springwater farmer, is finishing, will cost about $1,800.

Wm. Bard shipped some dressed hogs Tuesday that weighed over 300 pounds each.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller and Edna came home Monday from a visit down at Aurora.

Mrs. J. R. Wilson has been quite sick with the grip, but is reported better.

Oregon City is going to hold a Rose Show and Flower Festival in May.

W. A. Cunningham is taking good care of his right arm. Been down to the rink.

Miss Neiva Green is out after one of the prizes to be given by the Oregon City Enterprise. When you pay your subscription see that she gets the vote.

Mrs. Ida Palmateer went to Oregon City, Monday, to visit with relatives and friends.

Paying your taxes? You can do so through The Clackamas Title Company of Portland. Read this company's ad on the first page.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pierson were in the city Monday.

Next Sunday morning Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching service at 11, League at 7:45 p. m.

Uncle James Gibson was in town, Saturday, from his farm near Dover. Mr. Gibson took home with him one of those fine phonographs that the Estacada Pharmacy advertises.

August N. Johnson, of Nebraska arrived here, Sunday for a few days visit with his son, A. N. Johnson. Since he was here last summer, Mr. Johnson has been spending the time at home, Omaha and Minneapolis.

The public was well pleased with the entertainment given by the little ones of the primary room last Friday evening. The receipts of the evening amounted to about $30 which will be expended for the benefit of the children. The district is much indebted to Miss Stephens and the scholars.

Justice Alsbaugh rendered a decision in the Lovelace-Forbes case by giving Mr. Lovelace a judgment of $76 and costs, which amount to $18. The court has issued an order for the sale of some cord wood which was attached. The sale will take place in Estacada on the 28th. Wm. Delap is acting constable in the case.

The Ladies' of the Aid spent a pleasant and profitable afternoon with Mrs. Drill. After the afternoon's work was finished the ladies were given a trolley ride up to the dam with Mr. Drill as motorman and Mrs. James as conductor. The ride was certainly very much enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Feb. 28 at the home of Mrs. Reagan.

Until the other evening we had never heard of kissing causing one to sleep overtime. There was a kissing party in town last Saturday evening which was attended by one of our popular young men and others, and some ladies. Just to what extent the young man indulged in the game we shall not tell, but it is sufficient to say that after retiring, slumber held him fast till Monday morning.

A new time table for the railroad went into effect last Sunday morning. All passenger trains depart fifteen minutes earlier than heretofore. Trains leave Estacada now at 7:22, 9:22, 11:22, 1:22, 3:52, 6:22 and 9:15. Trains leave Portland at 7:15, 9:15, 11:15, 1:15, 3:45, 6:15 and 7:25.

Wm. Dale received the news on Monday through the Pittsburg Post of the death of his brother, Michael Dale, at the age of 91. Mr. Dale was for years a very prominent steamboat river man. He was the man who shipped the first raft of lumber from Pittsburg to New Orleans.

A rather bad accident happened to D. M. Marshall last Sunday as he and Mrs. Marshall were returning home from a neighbor's. Noticing something apparently wrong with the harness, Mr. Marshall alighted to see what was the trouble. As he placed a foot on a hub of one of the buggy wheels, the horse stepped up quickly with such force that Mr. Marshall was thrown to the ground. He struck on his face and right elbow, and was considerably shaken up. The tendons of the elbow were badly injured. Mr. Marshall will be in the physician's care for awhile.

The American Mutual Asso. has appointed the Bank of Estacada its agent to collect all dues and premiums.

Bridge at the Falls

An active effort has been started towards building a bridge across Eagle Creek at the falls where the old bridge was, and for a road leading out on the South side. J. C. Duns was handing around a subscription paper Tuesday asking for enough money to buy a right-of-way for the road. The sum, $100 was raised in town. The road district is to build to road, and the county the bridge.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Rev. B. F. Rowland, of the Salem conference district of the M. E. church, held the second quarterly conference in Estacada on the 11th. The reports of the treasurers of the three different churches showed that $136.50 had been paid on the minister's salary, leaving $63.50 still due. Messrs. A. Demoy and H. Cooper were added to the board of trustees. Miss Ruth Dale was made assistant secretary and treasurer. Sunday School members of the conference are Mrs. Clemma Paroungian, H. D. Trapp and Mrs. C. A. Looney.
