Is public sentiment in and around Estacada for or against Statement 1 of the primary election law? Are the people in favor of legislative candidates pledging themselves to vote for that person for U. S. Senator who receives the highest number of votes at the general election regardless of what political party he may belong to? It has been suggested that a public meeting be held for the purpose of talking the question over.

What is Estacada going to do toward getting a part of the Eastern people who come West this Spring to locate in this part of the state? We have farm lands equal to the very best in the state for general purposes, and at reasonable prices. Our farming community can support thousands more. This fertile and beautiful country, lying under the dome of Mount Hood, is within an hour and thirty minutes' ride on the electric car line from Portland, one of the world's best markets.

Filbert Culture

The growing of Filbert nuts in Oregon is not an old industry for the state, but it is one of the promising new branches of the state's agricultural classes, and, no doubt, it will become one of profit and pleasure to those who engage in it. Mr. J. W. King, who purchased the George Lockerby place of J. W. Reed, has put out 150 6-months old Filbert trees which he expects will have some nuts on them this year. The King farm, which is now known as the "Hill Top" ranch, is located seven miles southeast of Estacada, in a very beautiful section of a fertile country. The only other Filbert farm which we know of around here is owned by Dr. King of Portland, and is near the town of Eagle Creek. These Kings deserve success.

Lloyd Yocum in Accident

This community was saddened, Tuesday when it was learned that Lloyd Yocum had been hurt by getting one of his hands cut in the planer at the woodworking factory. A double bladed ax which he had been using became entangled in the running gear of the machine and started revolving at a terrific speed and before Mr. Yocum could get his hand away he received three bad cuts on the back of the right hand and wrist. Dr. H. V. Adix was at once summoned and dressed the wound. After a thorough examination a surgical operation was seen to be necessary, and he was taken to Portland. The injury was found to be a bad one; most of the tendons were cut in two and the wrist bones were badly broken. Mr. Yocum may return home today.

Milwaukie has raised the county division question again. Miss Linda May Womer is now teaching school at Dover. The Clackamas County Teachers' Association will hold a local teachers' institute in Estacada on Saturday March 28. The following went into the I. O. O. F. lodge last Saturday evening: Dick and Wm. Githens, Hugh and Wm. Tracy, L. Kichen, G. C. and Ed. Heiple.

Arthur Brantner, who purchased a piece of the Bridenstine farm last Fall, is busily engaged preparing a part of the land for cultivation. He calculates to build a new residence on the farm this Spring.

Frank Stormer has bought a piece of land of his brother, John Stormer, across the river, and will move onto it, build and put the place under cultivation. Mr. Stormer has been living on the Mathews place.

W. P. McIntire and party numbering nine persons have gone into camp on the McIntire timber claims 12 miles east of Estacada. They have several hundred acres of valuable timber, and intend to devise a way of getting the lumber to market. The tract of timber adjoins that of Dr. Charlton who has refused an offer of $23,000 for the timber on her claim.

C. L. Ferry and wife have taken the Portland Restaurant to manage.

The sunshine's change to showers Tuesday evening was a welcomed variation.

F. M. Gill attended the county grange convention at Oregon City, Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Davis came up from Boring for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alf. Cooke.

J. W. Reed, Ed. Miller and Al. Lindsey are working on the latter's cottage on upper Main street.

Everett Miller is considering the plan of building a residence on his lots on the brow of reservoir bluff.

Mrs. A. Demoy has been appointed substitute mail carrier for rural route No. 1 out from Estacada of which Mr. Demoy is the regular carrier.

Julius Melike of Springfield was transacting business in town Saturday and called at The News shop. Mr. Melike is about through with his Spring grain seeding and said that the early outlook for this year is bright.

J. W. Antrim purchased an acre tract of land adjoining the original townsite of Estacada west from 7th street last Fall. He put up temporary living quarters, but is now getting ready to build a fine residence on the place.

Supt. O'Malley of the bureau of fisheries is establishing a sub-station on Eaglecreek for the season's work with steelheads. The department has not operated on the creek for a couple years. Eggs secured here will be hatched at the Clackamas station.

The attention of contractors and builders is called to a notice, in another column of this paper, from Clackamas county asking for bids on the construction of a Howe steel truss bridge across the river at this place.

On Monday morning at 9 Deputy Sheriff Delap sold 80 cords of the Forbes cordwood to settle the account held by J. F. Lovelace. J. B. Bowman paid $75 for 50 cords, and W. A. Jones got 20 cords for $33.

John Holm paid The News a visit Saturday. Mr. Holm is building up his farm he purchased east of town. He still owns his farm near Warren, Minn., but he says this climate is way a head of that of the Badger state.

Country property, lands, farms—bargains in them—town lots, houses, for sale—must be sold.—W. A. Heylman.

The Big Dance a Success

The big ball given by Wilson & Gerber at the park pavilion Saturday night was the biggest social affair that has taken place in Estacada for a long time. Over a hundred numbers were sold, and the big hall was about full. People came from the numerous neighboring towns to take part in the dance. A splendid time was had by all, amidst quiet and perfect order. Landlord Laurry of the Hotel Estacada served the dinner of the evening to 147 guests, and it is needless to say, it was one of the most pleasant features of the evening.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Bottled Greengate and Effective
Chamberlain's cough remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and it contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Ia. says: "For more than 20 years Chamberlain's cough remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other. For sale at Estacada drug store."

National Bank Idea Killed by Andrew Jackson.

By WILLIAM G. SUMNER, Professor of Political and Social Science, Yale University.

It is not creditable to the country that the currency question should recur so OFTEN, but as the government of the country is democratic-republican there is NO ONE TO BLAME BUT OURSELVES. Banks in the past have played the devil with currency. They have the power—gone the limit.

THE NATIONAL BANK OF THE UNITED STATES WAS KILLED DEAD FOREVER BY ANDREW JACKSON AND NICHOLAS BIDDLE. ANDREW JACKSON DID NOT KNOW MUCH, AND BIDDLE DID NOT KNOW MUCH MORE. THERE IS NO REASON WHY WE SHOULD NOT HAVE A NATIONAL BANK OF THE UNITED STATES IF WE WANT ONE, BUT JACKSON HAS PUT HIS FOOT ON IT SO HEAVY THAT THE IMPRINT REMAINS INDELIBLE. I THINK THE SYSTEM OF THE IMPERIAL BANK OF GERMANY IS ADMIRABLE.

Our politics and our currency are AT WAR ALWAYS, and the former comes out the stronger. This congress will be full of currency. Every member will have a separate bill when they set the thing loose. God only knows what will come. I think we would better stick to what we have. THE PRESENT CURRENCY IS BAD, IT IS UNSCIENTIFIC, IT IS NOT CONNECTED WITH SPECIE, AND THERE IS NO TRUE BASIS FOR IT. It is the greatest conceivable foolishness. Some day we may get ready for some GRAND REFORM, but until we do let us hang on to what we have.
