Merchant H. N. North has been in Portland and Oregon City since Sunday.

Why did you do it? Merchant Howe asks that question of you in his ad this week.

Mrs. Anna Reid of Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Antrim last Sunday.

Postmaster J. T. Meyers of the Dodge postoffice, and J. W. Marrs, were in town Wednesday.

L. L. Simpson who purchased H. W. Green's barbershop fixtures, opened shop, Tuesday, in the old drug store stand.

A. E. Sparks went to Oregon City Wednesday morning as a delegate to a meeting of the M. W. A. lodge.

The dishes that were left at the Oddfellow hall Saturday can be found at the telephone office.

A. T. Dorsey, who sold his shop here to J. V. Barr, has gone up to Turner, Wash. and opened a blacksmith shop.

County Commissioner John Lewellen was in Estacada, Saturday, on county business. He came over with the school ma'ams.

Mrs. Fred Davis of Garfield died Tuesday following a short illness. The funeral will be this afternoon at the church at Zion. An obituary will appear in next week's paper.

Those who had charge of the work of entertaining the teachers at dinner Saturday wish to thank all who, in any manner, assisted with the dinner.

Do not forget the drama, "Diamonds and Hearts" which will be given Saturday evening by students of the Estacada school. A pie social will take place after the play.

Remember—
Cleveland's Baking Powder in 3 lb cans only cost $1 and 5 lb cans $1.65. Both these cans have the metal handle under the regular cover. They are useful when empty. Recommended by H. N. North.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shankland of Sellwood spent a couple days of last week at the old home near Estacada. While here Mr. Shankland rented a portion of the farm to Everett Miller for the coming season.

On March 28th John Zobrist executed a deed for Lot 2 in Block 1 and Lot 7 in Block 12 of the Zobrist Addition to Chas. Shutter. The actual purchase price paid for this property was $150.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Estacada were here last week for a visit with Mr. Jones' father, B. F. Jones, of 492 Tenino. The visitors formerly resided in Sellwood and are well known to a number of our citizens.—Milwaukee Bee.

Of Miss Lylith Moore who will be here on Apr. 11, the Tacoma Daily News of March 28, says: "Miss Lylith Moore elicited much praise on the delivery of her dramatic selection. It was a pathetic recital and given in a finished manner. Miss Moore will give readings in Seattle, Portland and Tacoma."

Mrs. Otto Kleatsch met with an accident one day last week which has confined her to her home and bed ever since. She was standing near a stump that her husband had a team hitched to and was trying to pull. The stump came out quickly in a hard pull, and a long root flew around and hit Mrs. Kleatsch on the side hurting her quite severely.

New Furniture

A visit to the furniture store of H. Cooper & Co. will convince anyone that they can get what they want in furniture right here in Estacada. A new and more extensive stock in nearly all lines has been put in. Also, a higher grade and more expensive line of goods. The new furniture includes some very beautiful iron bedsteads, commodes and dressers, rockers, center tables, couches, art squares Etc. Mothers will be particularly interested in the new baby carriages and go-carts that have just recently been received at Cooper's store. See them before going elsewhere.

Grandma Suter's Birthday

Another year rolled around and Thursday March 26 finds Grandma Suter still here able to receive a number of friends who came to celebrate her 88th birthday. The party came as a surprise: they were, Mrs. Wilburn, Mrs. Mary Young, Grandma Judd, Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Garret, Mrs. Trullinger, Mrs. Boyce, Mrs. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Niels, Josiah and James Suter, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Suter and family. Dinner was served after which the guests were favored with some songs, one of which was a war song in honor of the oldest son, and civil war veteran Josiah Suter. The singing was well rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, one song calling for an other. A little more friendly chat and the guests departed, all expressing good wishes for Grandma's future health and happiness. In spite of her advanced age and 5 years weary confinement to her chair, she is in possession of all her faculties and seems cheerful, with a Christian's hope of a better world to come. One whom, when he comes, the Lord will find waiting.

A Friend.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains
I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's pain balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Mary A. Cole, 140 S. New St. Dover, Del. Chamberlain's pain balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. Sold at the Estacada drug store.
