Memorial Services

Rev. M. B. Parounagian, pastor of the M. E. church, will preach a Memorial sermon for the Old Soldiers next Sunday morning, May 31. All veterans, their wives, widows, sons and daughters, are especially invited to be present.

Going anywhere? Going to travel? If you are, you will need either a trunk, suit case or telescope. We have a new supply of these goods. Also, shawl straps, Etc. Etc.—H. Cooper & Co.

Charles Bronson and family expect soon to move to St John where Mr. Bronson will be employed in a brick factory.

Oratorical Contest

On Friday evening the public will have the pleasure of listening to an oratorical medal contest between a few of the young ladies in town. The program will be rendered in the Methodist Episcopal church, and in addition to the speaking a number of musical selections will be given. Three gentlemen from out of town will be asked to act as judges to decide the contest. The contestants will be Miss Lora Stormer, Miss Kittie Ellen Reagan, Miss Mary Dale and Miss Edna Miller. No admission will be charged, but a free offering taken to help pay expenses.

Sore Nipples

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the baby to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with the best results. For sale by the Estacada drug store.

FOR SHERIFF

RICHARD L. GREAVES the Republican candidate for Sheriff has been a resident of Clackamas county for 40 years; has spent practically all his life here, where he received his school education. For the last 20 years he has been foreman in the blacksmith Dept. of the Willamette Pulp & Paper factory at Oregon City, which speaks very highly for him. Mr. Greaves is a person well suited and qualified for the office of Sheriff, and should be elected the office will be in competent hands. He promises conscientious and faithful service and courteous treatment to all.

James U. Campbell, candidate for the Legislature on the Republican ticket, is making his fight on his past record. Mr. Campbell is making very few promises; he stands squarely on statement No. 1, and for measures that will be for the best interests of the taxpayers. His record in the last legislature is a sufficient guarantee that he will carry out every plank in his platform if it is possible. It was said of him that he was the best parliamentarian and ablest debator in the House of Representatives at its last session, and was a credit to his constituents. His well-known stand for honesty, economy and reform was commented on by the press throughout the state. A vote for Mr. Campbell means a square deal for everybody.

By our Wayside Reporter

H. B. Sarver was seen in Estacada Friday.

Road supervisors D. M. Marshall and G. B. Linn are, each in his respective district, doing some fine road work.

Miss Inez Krigbaum returned Monday from a visit to her sister at Orient.

Regular Republican Nominee for Joint Representative

From Clackamas and Multnomah Counties

C. N. McARTHUR
OF PORTLAND

C. N. McArthur, the well-known Portland lawyer, who was nominated for Joint Representative in the Republican primaries, is well qualified for the office to which he aspires. He is a native Oregonian, a product of the State University, and has been admitted to the bar of both the state and Federal courts. He is a fluent speaker and a good parliamentarian.

Mr. McArthur has extensive farming interests in the Willamette Valley and as his early years were spent on the farm, his sympathies are with the common people. He is pledged to a platform that favors an honest, business-like administration of public affairs and opposes all graft and humbug. He is a taxpayer and a progressive citizen.

Mr. McArthur was reading clerk of the House of Representatives in 1905, and consequently is familiar with the work of the legislature.
