The Fourth's Celebration

The Nation's Birthday Celebrated in True, Patriotic Style—An Ideal Day—Big Crowd Has a Glorious, Peaceable Time—and Nobody Full or Killed

Thousands Come From Portland to Picnic and Celebrate

The celebration in Estacada on the 4th, of the nation's greatest holiday, was one of the most successful events that has ever taken place here. The day awoke with the weather rather threatening, but the heavy clouds soon broke away and the day developed into one of sublime fitness for the occasion.

The day's doings, were begun by the Estacada band playing national airs. At 11 part of the crowd met around the band stand in the park. Here, after prayer by Rev. M. B. Parounagian, Mayor W. A. Heylman introduced Dr. Larson, who spoke in a humorous vein for twenty minutes. Following the doctor, Louis M. Head arose and delivered the oration of the day. Mr. Head's speech was a modernized Fourth of July address; full of interest, sparkling with wit, and containing much sound advice to the American people.

SPRINGWATER

Temperature 90.
Good time for making hay.
Well, how did you enjoy the 4th?

Mr. Head gave a good, patriotic and sensible talk. The Estacada band did well. The ball game was interesting, and would have been more so, if there had not been so much back talk, tho take it altogether Estacada had a very enjoyable Fourth. One good feature, not a man did I see under the influence of liquor. Think it good to have the town dry. The writer, being an old pioneer, met many old friends from other cities—Astoria, Oregon City, Portland, Canby, Woodburn, Salem, Newport, Vancouver, Kamas, Joseph, Hood River, Gresham, Sandy. Rah! Rah! for Estacada's celebration!

Rev. Robertson and family have moved into the Presbyterian parsonage.

Mrs. Zell, after a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewellen, has returned home east of the mountains.

Albert Smith of Astoria is here seeing relatives and friends.

Sindey Smith has the grip. Willie Clossner is slowly improving from inflammatory rheumatism.

Erma Shibley, after spending the 4th here, has gone back to the Normal school.

J. A. Shibley and Elmer Dibble have taken their last load of potatoes to the Portland market receiving $1 a hundred.
