Some of the largest and most delicious cherries that ever pleased the taste of man are now being picked from the orchards around Estacada.

In 1907 forest fires in the United States destroyed $31,589 worth of timber, and in 1905, $101,282 worth of timber. The forest ranger is doing something for his country.

The South of France is the native home of the cherry, but none but the Royal Ann, of the Oregon cherry, originated in the old country, but it grows larger here than it does there.

The Secretary of the Interior has rejected all bids for removing timber from around Lakes Kathlamet, Keechelus and Cleelum, Wash. that are to be used as reservoirs in connection with the Yakima irrigation project.

N. C. Westerfield, who is looking over this Western country, was in town Tuesday, and was shown a small part of the country district by Everett Miller. He was greatly pleased with the country, its prosperous appearance and fertile lands, and thinks he will invest here. Mr. Westerfield was once the proprietor and editor of the Western Investor, a mining journal of high standard, which he published in St Paul.

A practicing physician told ten of his doctor friends that he had $10,000 to invest, and asked each one what to do with it. He received the following ten answers—

"Buy land in Oklahoma." "Invest it in coal land in Southern Indiana." "Put it in my pocket and start as soon as possible for Japan." "Go to Europe for pleasure and science." "Build a small home." "Buy amalgamated copper." "Travel about the United States."

Burbank's Phenomenal

A new berry has made its appearance in Estacada. The first that have been put on the market were grown by W. H. Holder of Garfield. It is the Burbank Phenomenal. It closely resembles the Logan berry in looks, but is more meaty, has a milder taste, and is a smoother berry. Mr. Holder, who is going into the fruit growing business to considerable extent, has a number of bushes of the Phenomenal which are yielding quite good.

Oregon City's High School

A news item in Monday's Oregonian says: "Education has taken a long step forward in Oregon City, this year and for the first time a 4-grade high school will be maintained, commencing at the opening of the Fall term on Sept. 21." Two assistants have been provided Prof. McKee who will teach the sciences. The course will embrace all of the branches usually taught in a high school.

A Cherry Party and Hayrack Ride

A number of merry pleasure seekers made up a party last Friday evening and went on a hayrack ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Currin north of Currinsville where cherry eating was the principal pastime. Mrs. Currin had the home beautifully decorated, and the evening was a most pleasant one. Delicious refreshments were served along with the cherries. Those in the party were—Zoa Irwin, Mable Barr, Gertrude Morrow, May Scott, Kitty Reagan, Mary Dale, Helen Berry, Edna Miller, Karl Cary, Roy Morrow, A. N. Johnson, George Shultz, Jesse Stubbs, Geo. Townsend, Clyde Schock, Robert Marchbank, Warren Barr, Arthur Burman, and Ed. Hunt who furnished and drove the rig.

C. M. Folsom recently returned from a business trip up into Washington.

Ed. Boner and Wm. Dale came back from the beach Monday evening. They had a great time at the old pond, but the crowd wasn't of the best—too many swells—in the ocean.

Willie Richards was taken to a Portland hospital where, on Monday, he was given a surgical operation for an affection for the throat. He was brought home Tuesday.

W. H. Wilson, a brother of J. R. Wilson, and his family spent Sunday in Estacada. They are on their return voyage to their home at Valdez, Alaska, after several months spent at the Colorado hot springs.

Max von Neumann visited his ranch near town yesterday. He has taken a position at the Orphans Home at Oswego and will have charge of the laundry and steam heating plant.

Going anywhere? Going to travel? If you are, you will need either a trunk, suit case or telescope. We have a new supply of these goods. Also, shawl straps, Etc. Etc.—H. Cooper & Co.

Lou Palmateer and Floyd Holder drove to Oregon City last week and brought over the grader to the rock crusher.

The wife and family of Station Agent C. P. Kelley arrived here, Monday, from Seattle. They will occupy the Frank Morris residence.

At the Hotel Estacada Sunday, Manager Laury had the largest number of people at meals of any Sunday this season.

Blackberry picking is the usual thing nowadays. The berries are said to be not quite so plentiful as they were last year. One family in town has put up nearly 100 quarts already.

Mrs. Nettie Butler, a daughter of W. J. Emmett, visited over Saturday and Sunday here. Mrs. Butler's home is in Scappoose. Last Friday a severe thunder storm visited her section of the country.

Surveyor Gossett of Portland was employed last week by the Estacada State Bank to lay out some tracts of land about town.

Mrs. Ida Palmateer and little son left for Eastern Oregon last week, and will spend some time with relatives and friends at Hood River and The Dalles.

J. P. Steinman was in town Monday with a pleasant smile on, and upon inquiring the cause, we were told that he expected a brother, W. H., to arrive here this week from Evansville, Ind., for a summer visit on the farm.

Two lots 100 by 100 feet, house and all outbuildings, well fenced; only $375. Easy terms. A bargain.—Bank of Estacada.

Four of the young men in the office force of the O. W. P. spent all of last week out on Koaring river. They captured a 4-pointer and ran for home. W. W. Porter took the party out.

Mrs. Finch, a daughter of Mayor Lane of Portland, spent Monday with Mrs. J. R. Wilson. Mrs. Finch was once employed as cartoon artist on the Morning Oregonian.

Everett Miller has had lumber hauled, and is getting ready to build a residence on his lots at the corner of Fifth and Currin streets. Work on it will begin next Monday. Al Lindsey has the job.

A sociable will be given tomorrow, Friday, evening in the grange hall at Springwater. It will be in charge of the young people of the Christian Endeavor.

Oddfellows Install

The Estacada Oddfellow lodge, at the regular meeting last Saturday evening, installed new officers as follows—N. G. Edwin Bates; V. N. G. G. R. Crawford; Treas. W. F. Cary; Secy. John Ely; Warden, F. Crawford; Conductor, B. R. Kimmel; R. S. N. G. Jas. Cromer; L. S. N. G. Wm. Githens; R. S. V. N. G. W. M. Vonce; L. S. V. N. G. Wm. Kandle; R. S. B. Lloyd Vonce; L. S. B. Richard Githens; I. G. E. M. Miller; O. G. G. B. Linn; chaplain, J. C. Tracy.

Ed. Kaffoury was in Estacada on business last Friday.

The 'US' painters have been repainting the outside of Ed Scott's residence.

President-to-be Taft measures 72 inches about the waist. That is a terrible pace to set for the fashion.

County Commissioners Mattoon and Lewellen were over last week inspecting bridge work.

Mrs. Elsie Hailey, a cousin of Mrs. C. M. Folsom, and a daughter Mrs. J. E. Kane, were visitors at the Folsom farm last week.

The new bridge across the river at Estacada stands 98 feet above the water. It contains nearly 160,000 feet of lumber, and 9 tons of iron in its construction.

Miss Mary Standish, of Halsey, returned to her home last Thursday after a short visit here with her cousin, Mrs. H. D. Trapp.

While a party was out hunting for deer in Curry county last week, August Helming was mistaken for the animal and killed.

Mrs. Wm. Stubbe informed the editor of this paper last Friday that someone had gone into her stock pasture and had killed two valuable horses of theirs by poisoning them. Just how a human being can do such things, is a mystery we have never been able to understand.

Eagle Creek Wins

A Rather One-Sided Game—Lost Honors Regained

Eagle Creek entertained a large crowd of people Sun. who gathered there to see the second game of ball played between the Golden Wests and the Eagle Creek baseball team. The afternoon was intensely warm. The home team, backed by several hundred rooters, were determined to win the game which seemed to be theirs right from the start. It is said that considerable money changed hands, and that it took two umpires to finish the game. The score ended 6 to 13 in favor of the home team.

New Residence Finished

Another new residence for Estacada has been completed. It is not within the incorporated limits of the city, but is just outside west of the point where 7th street intersects Wade street. The house belongs to J. W. Antrim, and is situated on an acre lot Mr. Antrim purchased a year ago. It is built on the modern cottage plan, and contains 7 rooms. A large veranda runs the full length of the house on the east side.

Return of the Hoop Skirt. Leaders of fashion delving into the dusty past have dug up the hoop skirts and are delighted with the find. In their haughty and arbitrary way they have decreed that lovely woman shall don the bird cage, as of yore, and go sailing down the street demanding two-thirds of the sidewalk for her promenade.

We shall see whether the new and improved woman, with all of the modern attachments, will submit as gracefully as did her sister of thirty years ago, or whether she will rise up, and tell the fashion leaders that it is too late in the history of the world for man to put a barb wire fence around her.

Meanwhile the expectant goat will stand around in the back lot and await the declaration, for it is a long time since he has had anything as delectable as the hoop skirt lunch, and the humble humorist will dig into the files and resurrect the stock joke of the last generation and make it do one more stunt.

Going Him One Better. "Say, do you know who I am? I eat a bad man for dessert every once in awhile." "Huh! I eat an injunction for breakfast every morning."

By our Wayside Reporter
